151st Annual Convention

Journal of Proceedings

On Monday, May 6, 1935, at 6.15 P. M., the Bishop of the Diocese entertained the Deputies to the Convention at a Dinner, which was followed by a Mass Meeting at 8.15 P. M., in the Church of The Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, when the Bishop read The Annual Address to the Convention (see Appendix A), and a Sermon was preached by the Right Reverend George C. Stewart, D.D., S.T.D., L.H.D., the Bishop of Chicago. The Offering for the Missionary Work amounted to $216.71.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY, PHILADELPHIA,
TUESDAY, MAY 7, 1935.

The Opening Service of the One Hundred and Fifty-first Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held as above at 9 A. M. by Resolution of the last Convention.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Francis Marion Taitt, S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D., the Rev. H. R. Weir and the Rev. R. J. Morris. The Offering for Missionary Work amounted to $20.88.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10 A. M., and, a quorum being present, proceeded to business.

The Order of the Day being the election of a Secretary, the Rev. J. M. Niblo nominated

the Rev. Richard J. Morris

On motion, the nominations were closed and the President, having cast the ballot, declared Mr. Morris duly elected.

The Secretary appointed as Assistant Secretary

the Rev. Charles H. Long

The Convention confirmed the appointment.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS

which was adopted:

Your Committee presents herewith its suggested program for the dispatch of business during the Convention.

In order to expedite the order of business, your Committee suggests that all Reports be made by Title as far as possible. And all through the Convention Resolutions to discharge Committees from further consideration of the subject be omitted, it being understood that they are so discharged unless the Convention recommit the matter to their further consideration, or unless the work of the Committee is unfinished.

The Rev. C. H. Long presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS

which was adopted.

The Secretary read the Canon of Courtesy, as follows:

Canon II, Section VIII. Clergymen canonically resident in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses of this Church, Clergymen of other Churches in communion with this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in the Protestant Episcopal Church, Wardens of Missions organized under the provision of the Canon on The Organization of Missions, and all persons holding any office of trust under this Convention, though not members, shall be admitted to the sittings in this Convention.

The Secretary read the Report:

The Secretary of the Convention reports

That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties as prescribed by the Constitution and Canons so far as possible.

That under date of March 1 he sent out the Calls and other Documents for the Annual Convention.

That on February 1 only 32 of the Annual Reports of the Parishes and Missions had been returned out of the 231 due, many of them being very incomplete. He would ask once more that the Report blank be completely filled out, as all the figures are required for the Report to the General Convention and are a permanent record of the whole activities of the Parishes and Missions. This is the Report of the Parish and not merely of the Accounting Warden.

That boxes for the Registration of the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been placed in the vestibules of the Church and all Deputies should register at once.

That the following is Unfinished Business from the Annual Convention of 1934:

(1) Report of the Diocesan Campaign Fund.
(2) Report by the Committee on Memorial to Bishop Garland.
(3) Report of the Committee on Portrait of Bishop Garland.
(4) Report of the Committee on Safeguarding Finances.

That the following Parishes have not sent in Certificates of Lay Deputies and therefore have no Lay Deputies in this Convention: S. Luke, Chadds Ford; S. John, New London; S. James, Bristol; Redeemer, Bryn Mawr; S. Thomas, Whitemarsh; Emmanuel, Holmesburg; Emmanuel, Kensington; Epiphany, Sherwood; Good Shepherd, Kensington; House of Prayer, Branchtown; Resurrection, Mayfair; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. John Baptist, Germantown; S. John Chrysostom; S. Jude and The Nativity; S. Peter, Philadelphia; S. Thomas, Philadelphia; Holy Innocents, Tacony; S. Elisabeth, Philadelphia; S. Mary, Philadelphia.

That of the 44 Missions and Chapels entitled to Lay Representatives only 21 have sent in Certificates.

The Secretary offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS: The Parish of S. John the Divine, Philadelphia, is in process of dissolving its existence as a corporation; be it

RESOLVED: That the Secretary of the Convention be and is hereby instructed to remove the name of this Parish from the List of Parishes of the Diocese.

The House of Prayer, Branchtown, having sent in the names of Deputies by letter only, owing to the illness of the Warden, the Convention on motion accepted the same and ordered the Deputies seated.

The Secretary reports further:

That the following Parishes have not sent in Parochial Reports for 1934: Covenant, Philadelphia; Good Samaritan, Paoli; S. Andrew, Philadelphia; S. John Chrysostom.

That the following Parishes have not paid the required Assessments for 1934: Atonement, Morton; Christ, Franklinville; S. Bartholomew, Wissinoming; S. James, Hestonville; Trinity, Ambler; Holy Innocents, Tacony; Resurrection, Mayfair; Good Shepherd, Kensington; Incarnation, Drexel Hill; S. David, Manayunk; S. John Baptist, Germantown; S. John the Divine, Philadelphia; S. Jude and The Nativity; S. Paul Memorial, Philadelphia; Saint Sauveur; S. Stephen, Wissahickon; Holy Nativity, Rockledge; S. Andrew, Yardley; S. Elisabeth; S. John Chrysostom; S. Mary, Warwick.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the right of Representation in this Convention of those Parishes which have not sent Parochial Reports, or have not paid their Assessments, be declared forfeited; but that they be invited to present to the Committee on Claims of Laity to Seats any facts which seem to them to justify a restoration of such rights of Representation; and, that the said Committee be instructed to consider such facts and make appropriate recommendations to the Convention; and, that meanwhile the Lay Representatives from said Parishes be invited to take their seats, but to refrain from participating in the proceedings until the Convention shall have restored the right of Representation of their Parishes.

The President appointed the following Committees:

Claims of the Clergy to Seats:

The Rev. George Copeland — The Rev. C. B. Dubell
The Rev. J. R. Logan

Claims of Laity to Seats:

Mr. C. L. Harper — Mr. J. L. Evans
Mr. George Hall

THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS presented the Report as follows:

That in accord with Standing Order V, the Preliminary Ballot was sent out to 259 Clerical Deputies according to a list prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority as entitled to vote and to the Rectors of the 140 Parishes in Union with the Convention (3 each) for the use of the Lay Deputies.

That from the 43 Preliminary Ballots returned the Official Ballot was prepared and sent to the Clerical Deputies and to the Lay Deputies whose election had been certified to the Secretary of the Convention under date of April 26th, and to the Secretary of the Convention.

That the elections will be held in the usual manner in the Church House, the Clergy voting in the Assembly Room and the Lay Deputies in the room adjoining. The First Ballot will be taken at 1:45 P. M.

The Committee calls attention to the fact that out of the 679 Deputies entitled to vote, only 43 exercised the privilege; that no new names were nominated, although 46 such received from 1 to 4 votes; that some Deputies state mistakenly that the present method is merely continuing a prearranged slate. The Committee would be glad to consider any other way better adapted for nominations.

The Committee would report further that the following who were nominated on the Preliminary Ballot have withdrawn their names:

Deputies to Provincial Synod: Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr.

Directors of the Church Foundation: Mr. J. S. Newbold.

Board of Friars: Rev. W. R. Scott. Mr. Spencer Ervin, who was nominated for the Executive Council, is already an ex-officio member, as Vice-Chairman.

For the Committee, RICHARD J. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Secretary reports further:

That he has received from the Secretary of the General Convention five alterations of the Constitution, proposed in the Convention of 1934, to be finally acted upon in 1937, submitted herewith. (Appendix N, p. 347.)

On motion, these were referred to a Committee of three Clergymen and two Laymen, to be appointed by the Chair, to report to the Convention of 1936.

The Chair appointed the following Committee:

The Rev. G. C. Foley, D.D., the Rev. H. R. Gummey, S.T.D., the Rev. J. C. H. Mockridge, D.D., Mr. S. F. Houston, Mr. G. W. Jacobs. (Later the Bishop appointed the Rev. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D., in place of the Rev. Dr. Foley, deceased.)

The Secretary reports further:

That he has received from the Secretary of the General Convention the Report of the National Commission on Evangelism, together with a second Report, accompanied by the following Resolution by the Committee on Evangelism:

WHEREAS: The report of the Committee on Evangelism contains some very excellent suggestions regarding the prosecution of the work of Evangelism throughout the Church; and

WHEREAS: This stimulus to Evangelism, so greatly needed in our beloved Church at this time, should be disseminated; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Report of its Committee on Evangelism be adopted by the House, and that it be printed and distributed to each Diocesan Commission or Committee where it exists, and that a copy be sent to each Diocesan Secretary with a request that he present same to the next Diocesan Convention for action.

The Secretary reports further:

That he has received a Communication from the Secretary of the House of Bishops, defining the word "Communicant," submitted herewith, which he had printed in the Church News of February, 1935.

On motion, the definition was ordered printed in the JOURNAL as follows:

January 1, 1935.
281 Fourth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

In accordance with the action of the House of Bishops in General Convention at Atlantic City, New Jersey, in October, 1934, notice is hereby given to the Bishops of all Dioceses and Missionary Districts and to all Secretaries of Dioceses and Convocations of the reaffirmation by the House of Bishops of the action of the General Convention of 1913, upon the definition of the word "Communicant," as hereinafter follows; and of the request that this action be made known to their next Diocesan Convention or Missionary Convocation:

"The Joint Committee appointed in 1907, and continued in 1910, to report a plan for the uniform registration of 'Communicants,' respectfully reports that it has given the matter careful consideration, and is of the opinion that the different aspects of the question are admirably covered by the report made in 1907 by a similar Committee of the House of Deputies, to which they beg leave to refer. It will be found on pages 231 to 233 of the Journal of that year. We agree with all that is there said defining a 'Communicant' as one who has received Baptism and Confirmation, or has been formally admitted to the Holy Communion as being 'ready and desirous to be confirmed.' We reiterate that all such should be enrolled and kept upon the Parish Register until death, transfer or discipline removes the name."

"Neglect of the privilege of receiving the Sacrament, long absence, or even departure without a letter is not sufficient reason for erasing a name, as the person may reappear or ask for transfer after many years. His rights as a potential Communicant should be scrupulously conserved. On the other hand, parochial reports should not be padded with misleading statistics. To enumerate all these non-effective members is to exaggerate the real strength of the Parish. Communicants known to have neglected for three years the reception of the Holy Communion, in spite of due and sufficient opportunity therefor, should not be reported for statistical purposes. But, as above suggested, nothing but death, transfer or discipline should justify the removal of a name from the Register."

The above report was adopted by the concurrent action of both Houses of the General Convention of 1913.

CHARLES L. PARDEE,
Secretary of The House of Bishops.

The Secretary reported the Nominations for Officers to be filled by Elections, as certified to by the Committee on Elections. (See below.)

Additional Nominations being asked for, the following were nominated: Deputy to the Provincial Synod, Mr. R. D. Brown; Board of Triers, Rev. J. F. Bullitt. The Rev. J. M. Niblo withdrew his name as Deputy to the Provincial Synod.

There being no further Nominations, on motion the Nominations were ordered closed where only a sufficient number had been nominated, and the Secretary was instructed to cast the Ballot for those nominated; which having been done, the President declared elected the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE: The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D.; E. M. Jefferys, S.T.D.; Franklin Joiner, D.D.; J. O. McIlhenny, D.D.; L. C. Washburn, S.T.D. Messrs. W. P. Barba, Spencer Ervin, W. W. Frazier, Jr., S. F. Houston, P. S. Williams.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL: The Revs. J. M. Collins, W. E. Conkling, L. G. Morris, D.D.; J. M. Niblo, W. N. Parker, G. H. Toop, D.D. Messrs. Lardner Howell, B. H. Ludlow, R. A. Morgan, C. C. Morris, J. O. Nicolls, C. R. Woodruff.

DEPUTIES TO THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD: The Revs. J. M. Collins, Franklin Joiner, D.D., G. H. Toop, D.D., S. V. Wilcox. Messrs. R. D. Brown, W. W. Finn, Isaac Starr, William White.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND: Messrs. J. A. Harris, Jr., Thomas Newhall, C. S. W. Packard, Charlton Yarnall.

DIRECTORS OF THE CHURCH FOUNDATION (For 3 years): The Revs. F. C. Hartshorne, C. E. Tuke, D.D. Messrs. R. D. Brown, E. O. Coates, L. B. Runk.

The Lay Deputies confirmed the election.

ASSISTANT TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE: Mr. W. W. Finn.

CANONS OF THE CATHEDRAL (For 4 years): The Revs. G. G. Bartlett, S.T.D., G. C. Carter, D.D. Messrs. Malcolm Lloyd, R. A. Morgan. For 1 year, Rev. L. W. Pitt.

BOARD OF TRIERS: Rev. J. F. Bullitt.

Mr. R. D. Brown offered a Resolution in re Parishioners of down-town Churches, which was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business (p. 43).

The COMMITTEE ON CHARTERS reported that no Charters had been submitted.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CLERICAL SALARIES AND PENSIONS

(See Appendix J, page 313)

and offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

1. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess not more than $15,000 for the Sustentation Fund for the year 1936.
2. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be relieved of responsibility for collecting Sustentation Fund arrears for any year prior to 1934.
3. RESOLVED, That Standing Resolution E, having to do with Clerical Salaries, be repealed.

4. RESOLVED, That the Standing Resolution adopted in 1934, and reading as follows:

"RESOLVED, That if a Parish does not contribute at least $1,300 annually towards its Rector's salary, the Commission may, and if it does not contribute at least $1,200 the Commission shall, etc.," be changed to read:

"RESOLVED, That if a Parish does not contribute at least $1,300 towards its Rector's salary, the Commission may withdraw or decline to make any appropriation to augment the Rector's salary, and may recommend to the Bishop, the Rector and Vestry that the Parish make application to come under the Missionary Administration as provided in Canon VIII, Sec. V. In such a case the Commission may make an appropriation towards the salary of the Rector or Missionary following the assumption of Missionary status."

Mr. Hartshorne offered Resolution 5 as follows:

5. RESOLVED, That a new Standing Resolution be adopted reading as follows:

"RESOLVED, That where a Parish becomes vacant through the death or resignation or removal of its Rector the Commission may, for sufficient cause and with the approval of the Bishop, notify the Vestry thereof that no appropriation will be made by the Commission to enable the Vestry to elect and support a Rector, but that if they will waive, for a limited period, the right to elect a Rector, and will consent to the Bishop appointing a Priest-in-Charge, the Commission will help in paying his salary."

The Rev. J. F. Bullitt offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Commission:

Insert after the word "Parish" the words: "which has been receiving aid from the Sustentation Fund."

The Rev. J. W. Norris offered the following Amendment, which was accepted by the Commission:

Insert after the words "Sustentation Fund," just inserted, the words, "and which is unable to raise at least $1,200 towards the Rector's salary."

The Resolution as amended was adopted.

The Church of The Covenant, having presented a Parish Report, was restored to representation in this Convention.

The Secretary reported that the Church of The Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, has presented the Certificate of Lay Deputies and has representation in this Convention.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee have examined and recommend for adoption the following Amendments, proposed by the Commission on Clerical Salaries:

Amend Canon VII, Section VI, as follows:

1. Strike out sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 2, and re-letter the following sub-paragraphs.
2. Strike out paragraph 3 of said Section, and re-number the following paragraphs.
3. In paragraph 6 of said Section, strike out the words "Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions" in the fifth and sixth lines, and the word "Commission" in the sixth line, and substitute in both places the words "Church Pension Fund."

Each of the above Amendments was adopted.

Mr. Hartshorne continued the report and offered the following Amendment, proposed by the Executive Council, and recommended by the Committee:

Amend Canon VII, Section III, by striking out in lines 8, 9, 10, 11 the words "on or before each of the following dates of said calendar year: April 1st, July 1st, October 1st and December 1st," and substituting the words "upon receipt of bills for the same."

The Amendment was adopted.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo read the

REPORT OF THE CATHEDRAL CHAPTER
(Appendix H, page 305)

The Order of the Day having arrived (see page 41), Mr. R. D. Brown presented the following:

WHEREAS: It is generally known that a number of our downtown Parishes are encountering new and difficult problems due principally to the removal from their neighborhood of many former parishioners; and

WHEREAS: The solution of such problems might be much aided by the advice and co-operation of some Diocesan authority, representing the point of view of churchmen outside of the Parishes themselves; and

WHEREAS: It is believed that the Cathedral Foundation is naturally concerned in the right solution of these problems of the Church, and is peculiarly well qualified to represent the Diocesan viewpoint:

RESOLVED: That this Convention believes that it will aid in the solution of such problems for the Cathedral Foundation to confer with the vestries of any Parishes who may ask for its assistance, and to give such vestries the benefit of its experience and judgment.

The Rev. C. E. Grammer moved to amend the Resolution by substituting the words "Executive Council" for the words "Cathedral Foundation."

The Amendment was adopted, on Division, Ayes 185, Noes 96.

The amended Resolution was lost, on Division, Ayes 90, Noes 158.

The Secretary announced that a Certificate for Lay Deputies had been received from S. Peter's Church, Philadelphia, and that Parish has representation in this Convention.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the President bade the Convention to Noon-Day Prayers.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Rev. C. E. Snowden presented the

and introduced the Rt. Rev. Frederick B. Bartlett, D.D., who addressed the Convention.

The Rev. J. M. Collins presented the REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A MEMORIAL TO BISHOP GARLAND

"that economic conditions were still too unfavorable to attempt such Memorial."

The Rev. C. W. Shreiner presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON A PORTRAIT OF BISHOP GARLAND

"that this had been painted and was on exhibition at the Church House."

The Rev. J. F. Bullitt presented by Title the

(Appendix E, page 261)

The Rev. J. F. Bullitt presented by Title the

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

and submitted the following Recommendation:

The Executive Council recommends to the Convention that each Congregation should have two Treasurers, one the Parish Treasurer and the other the Treasurer of Missionary funds. It should be the duty of the Missionary Treasurer to encourage systematic giving to missions, and be responsible for the forwarding to the Diocesan Treasurer the money contributed for missions, monthly if possible.

Mr. R. D. Brown offered the following Resolution, which was adopted, on Division, Ayes 141, Noes 117:

RESOLVED: That it is the sense of this Convention that the above Recommendation be made a Standing Resolution of this Convention.

The Secretary reported that S. Thomas Church, Whitemarsh, has presented a Certificate for Lay Deputies and has representation in this Convention.

The Convention took a Recess at 1 P. M.

The Convention reassembled at 2.30, the Bishop in the Chair.

Word having been received that the Rev. G. C. Foley was in extremis, the Bishop offered the Commendatory Prayer.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Bishop presented by Title a copy of the Annual Address and Official Diary.

Mr. Spencer Ervin presented the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS

(Appendix M, page 335)

and offered, with the approval of the Committee on Canons, the following Amendments to the Canons, each of which was adopted:

Revise and enlarge present Canon XVI so that it shall read as follows:

CANON XVI
OF BUSINESS METHODS IN CHURCH AFFAIRS

SEC. I. In Parishes and Church Congregations

1. The fiscal year shall begin January 1st and end December 31st.
2. All accounts having to do with the receipts and expenditures or investments of money of all Parishes and Church Congregations shall be audited [etc., as at present].

SEC. II. In Organizations Other Than Parishes and Congregations

1. All organizations of whatever category under the secular law, other than Parishes and Church congregations, which have their existence or conduct their operations within the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and which hold themselves out as maintained for benevolent, administrative or other purposes under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church shall, if they desire to continue to operate under such auspices and to be recognized by this Diocese as meeting its requirements;

(a) Make formal declaration of their adherence to the Doctrine and Worship of this Church, and of their submission to its Discipline and Canons:

(b) Declare their willingness to conform to such financial safeguards and practices as may from time to time be prescribed by the Canons adopted by the General Convention or by the Convention of this Diocese, or called for by the Executive Council of this Diocese under the provisions of the next section.

SEC. III. Duties of the Executive Council

1. As soon as practicable following the adjournment of the Convention of 1935 the Executive Council, through the Department of Finance, shall bring the requirements of this Canon to the notice of all organizations described herein, and shall invite them to make the declarations called for in the preceding section of this Canon, and to furnish the Department with a certified copy thereof.

2. In the case of organizations which have expressed their willingness to submit to its requirements, the Executive Council, through the Department of Finance, shall prescribe regulations for the safekeeping of securities, the protection of current funds, the supervision of investments, the auditing of accounts, and other financial safeguards and practices, and it shall be the duty of such organizations when notified of these regulations to put them into effect, and to furnish the Department with such evidence that they are being observed as the Department may from time to time call for.

3. The Executive Council shall report annually to the Convention the action of the Department of Finance under this Canon and the names of all organizations which have met its requirements and the requirements of Sec. I of Canon XVIII, and a list of such organizations shall be published annually in the Journal of the Convention and in the Church News of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Add a new paragraph to Canon VI, Sec. IV, to be placed immediately before the present last paragraph of that Section, and reading as follows:

The Council, through the Department of Finance, shall prescribe and enforce the financial safeguards provided for in Sections II and III of Canon XVI, and shall enforce the provisions of Section I of Canon XVIII.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Committee on Financial Safeguards be continued and requested to consider and to recommend, if they deem it expedient, similar recommendations in regard to parochial finances.

The Rev. L. C. Washburn offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, throughout the Eighteenth Century the Church in this Colony was in continuous receipt of the nursing care of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel; and

WHEREAS, at the present time two distinguished representatives of that venerable and increasingly vigorous Society are visiting several of our sister Dioceses; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That Convention send its cordial greetings to Canon Stacy Waddy, D.D., Secretary of the S. P. G., and to Sir Edward C. Midwinter, K. B. E., of London; and desires to express its hope that they will be able to favor us with an opportunity to extend to them such courtesies as would prove agreeable to them.

The Rev. E. M. Jefferys presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS: Canon 49 requires the Diocese to pay toward the expenses of the General Convention and of the office of the Presiding Bishop not more than $17 each three years for every Clergyman canonically resident therein; and

WHEREAS: There are 33 Clergymen canonically resident in Pennsylvania who are living outside the Diocese, at least two-thirds of whom are working elsewhere; be it

RESOLVED: That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to write to all Clergymen who come under the above classification, asking them to forward annually such amount as may be assessed under Canon 49 to the Treasurer of the Diocese, to pay for their share in the same, or else to request Letters Dimissory to the Diocese where they are residing.

Mr. H. R. Robins presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That a Committee of seven be appointed to consider the commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the First General Convention held in Christ Church, Philadelphia.

The Rev. N. B. Groton offered the following Substitute, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the acceptance of the Portrait of Bishop Garland be referred to the Commission on Church Building.

The Rev. N. H. Caley presented by Title the

and offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Commission be continued for the purpose of carrying out the Recommendations printed in the Report, as well as to further the cause of Church Music in the Diocese, and that the Commission be empowered to fill vacancies and to add to its numbers.

The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Convention send a Resolution of sympathy and best wishes to the Rev. A. E. Clattenburg and to the Rev. G. H. Dennison in their illness.

The Bishop nominated as Examining Chaplains for the term expiring 1938 The Revs. L. C. Lewis, Ph.D., L. W. Pitt, F. C. Steinmetz, S.T.D., P. J. Steinmetz, D.D., J. W. Walker.

The Convention confirmed the Nominations.

The Bishop appointed as Chancellor of the Diocese, Roland S. Morris, Esq.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo offered the following Resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the hour for the Opening Service of the Convention of 1936 be changed from 9.30 A. M. to 9 A. M.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo offered the following Resolution, which was adopted unanmiously by a Rising Vote:

RESOLVED: That the Appreciation of the Deputies to the Convention be expressed to the Bishop of the Diocese for his kind and generous hospitality in entertaining the Deputies at dinner before the Diocesan Mass Meeting.

The Rev. J. M. Niblo offered the following Resolutions, each of which was adopted:

RESOLVED: That 650 copies of the JOURNAL be printed and distributed as usual.

RESOLVED: That the Committee on Arrangements be instructed to arrange for the employment of the Public Address System for the Convention of 1936.

RESOLVED: That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity for the use of their buildings for the meeting of the Convention.

RESOLVED: That the next Annual Convention be held on Tuesday, May 5, 1936, starting with a Diocesan Mass Meeting on Monday evening when the Annual Address of the Bishops shall be read, at such place as the Bishops and Standing Committee may appoint.

RESOLVED: That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the honorarium of $75 to the Assistant Secretary of the Convention.

RESOLVED: That the Bishop be authorized to appoint after the adjournment of the Convention the usual Committees and Commissions.

RESOLVED: That the bills for Luncheon and for the Installation of the Address System be referred to the Committee on Expenses.

RESOLVED: That the reading of the Rough Minutes be dispensed with.

The Bishop appointed the Committees: On Arrangements, On Canons, On Charters, On Dispatch of Business, On Elections, On Expenses (for personnel see page 7).

On motion, after prayers by the President, the Convention adjourned at 4.55 P. M. sine die.

FRANCIS M. TAITT,
President of the Convention.

(ATTEST) RICHARD J. MORRIS,
Secretary of Convention.

Registered Attendance: Clergy 228, Lay Deputies 232 (111 Parishes); Lay Representatives 17.

Events of 1784 Fittingly Celebrated

The past year has been one of great significance and great activity. The stirring and important events of 1784 were fittingly celebrated in this and in adjoining Dioceses. A notable service was held at Christ Church on the eve of the last Diocesan Convention and a service of extraordinary interest was held at the same Church on Independence Day.

The General Convention of 1934 assembled almost at our door, and for attendance, magnificence, and fervor has never been approached by any previous Convention. Over 35,000 were present at the opening service and many thousands were present every day of the Convention. Our own Diocese probably sent nearly 15,000, and everyone came back enthused. I do not know that I ever met such a happy band of Christians as at that Convention. Nearly 700 delegates and friends came over to our Diocese, saw our places of interest, and attended a great Church Club dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. The memory of that Convention will long be with those who attended.

1784, however, was a year of preliminaries. The real event we want to commemorate occurred September 27, 1785. In that year two epochal Conventions were held in the then village of Philadelphia, one that is known as the "First Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Pennsylvania." It assembled in Christ Church on May 23rd and 24th. Notable progress was made by this Convention toward the accomplishment of the great purpose so patiently pursued by William White, of the forming of a National Church. Deputies were chosen to represent the State of Pennsylvania in a more inclusive Convention to be held in Philadelphia, on the Tuesday preceding the Feast of St. Michael next ensuing.

Recommendations for 1785 Commemoration

As a consequence of this May Convention, and similar meetings in other States, there assembled in Philadelphia from September 27th to October 7th of the same year, a Convention (sometimes called the "First General Convention of the Protestant-Episcopal Church in the United States of America") at which there were in attendance, clerical and lay deputies from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and South Carolina. An artist has attempted to picture it in one of the beautiful windows in Old Christ Church. A photographic reproduction of that window is to be ready for distribution soon, together with the names of those who attended. The formulation of an unprecedented Constitution, the production of a revised Prayer Book, the wise resolute steps taken toward securing the Episcopate in the Anglican succession, and the forwarding of the major project for uniting all of the States into a National Ecclesiastical unit, justify all who would understand the sources of the religious forces in America, in magnifying with reverend gratitude those far-seeing pioneers for God.

It would be appropriate that a Committee of Clergy and laymen be appointed from Churches represented at this Convention, who might associate with them Bishops, Clergy and laymen from other parts of Pennsylvania and the other six States who were also represented in 1785, to properly celebrate the 150th anniversary of the First General Convention of the Church in America.

It is a great joy to me to give an account of my stewardship for the past year and to reveal to you what God has wrought; what we may expect from Him; and what He expects from us in the coming year.

While we are told that last year was a record year in automobile sales and that in the past two winters there were more visitors in Florida than for many years; that although hotel rates were high, it was difficult to secure accommodations; though the President of the United States in a notable speech to the Gridiron Club declared, "We are not getting out of the depression; we are out of it";—there are certain other places where no such optimism is registered. The Welfare Drive, while greatly decreasing the amount asked, has failed for several years to reach its goal. Almost every attempt to secure large amounts for worthy objects has likewise failed or come far from its objective.

Effects of Continued Economic Conditions

The National Council has also failed of the amount necessary to carry on its work. Last year it was saved from serious disruption by the men of the country, who secured a sum of about $270,000 and enabled it to meet most of its obligations.

In our Diocese, while probably every institution and possibly every Parish was obliged to economize, yet none failed to function nor was plunged into hopeless debt.

The Church has not closed a single Mission nor dismissed a single Missionary. While the income is less, church attendance and interest have largely increased. Last year I spoke of the great attendance on Good Friday and the large number of communicants on Easter Day. This year there were larger attendances at the commemorative service and many more communicants receiving the Blessed Sacrament at Easter. In one of our Missions, St. Barnabas, Kensington, there were 26 children and 8 adults baptized at the service on Easter Even. For these things we thank God and take courage.

I Instituted as Rectors:

Rectors Instituted and Dedications

October 7, 1934, the Rev. Thomas L. Harris as Rector of St. Luke and the Epiphany.

November 2, 1934, the Rev. Henry S. Paynter as Rector of Trinity Church, Coatesville.

January 9, 1935, the Rev. Charles Henger Urban as Rector of St. Barnabas Church, Haddington.

February 6, 1935, the Rev. Frank Cox as Rector of the Church of the Redemption, Philadelphia.

February 8, 1935, the Rev. Edmund B. Wood as Rector of St. Timothy's Church, Roxborough.

I dedicated on May 14, 1934, two new rooms at Seamen's Church Institute.

On October 7, 1934, the restored Church of the Advent was dedicated.

On November 1, 1934, at St. Peter's, Germantown, a beautiful Chapel was dedicated. This was made possible by a legacy of a devout communicant.

On February 1, 1935, I dedicated a Chapel at the Seamen's Church Institute at Marcus Hook.

On February 1, 1935, I dedicated a beautiful Chapel at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg.

On April 28, 1935, Dr. Crum dedicated a Chapel at St. Andrew's, West Philadelphia, in memory of the Rev. William J. Cox.

On June 11, 1934, Dean Eder dedicated a new Chancel at St. Barnabas, Germantown.

On November 1, 1934, I blessed St. Mary's Chapel of the Cathedral at Roxborough, given in memory of Mary Masden Vaughan.

On December 2, 1934, at Whitemarsh, I blessed a communion rail given by a brother to express his affection for a living sister.

On January 16, 1935, I blessed the enlarged Parish House of St. Augustine's Church.

On November 29, 1934, I consecrated St. Aidan's Chapel on its 10th anniversary. The securing of all funds necessary was a work of noble sacrifice of priest and people.

There were also certain notable anniversaries.

Some Notable Anniversaries

May 4, 1934, Dr. Toop celebrated his 20th anniversary as Rector of Holy Apostles Church.

May 29, 1934, Rev. John E. Hill celebrated his 25th anniversary as Rector of All Saints Church.

June 21, 1934, the 40th anniversary of the Chapel of St. Simon the Cyrenian and the 25th anniversary of the Vicar, the Rev. John R. Logan, D.D., were celebrated.

October 14, 1934, the Rev. Dr. Clattenburg celebrated the 10th anniversary as Rector of St. John's Church, Cynwyd, and Dr. Tiley the 30th anniversary of his voluntary and marvelously effective work as organist and choirmaster of the Church.

January 23, 1935, the 15th anniversary of the Seamen's Church Institute, Philadelphia, was observed.

January 28th was the 38th anniversary of the Galilee Mission.

Candidates for the Ministry

The subject of the oversight and preparation of men for the Ministry was discussed at length in my Convention Address of 1932. I am happy to say that the subject was also discussed and legislated on at the last General Convention. Instead of admitting as Candidates for the Ministry, men whom many recommend and nobody knows, it is now required that the man shall spend one year at a Divinity School, where his abilities, his character, and his peculiarities may be studied. If then satisfactory he may be recommended to the Bishop and Standing Committee and the year of study counted on his Candidacy. Our own Standing Committee has been foremost in its endeavor to study the character and disposition of Candidates. For some time past, everyone applying is visited by two members of the Standing Committee and a report is made, entirely apart from his scholastic acquirements. I ask you to carefully read its report. The Ministry should be carefully guarded, so that no unworthy, brainless, ill-prepared or worldly-ambitious man could intrude its sacred precincts.

Sympathy and Support for Philadelphia Divinity School Urged

Our Divinity Schools should be the object of our solicitude, our generous gifts and our prayers. Their products become the pilots of the Church of God. Christianity is primarily not a philosophy but a revelation. On the staff of such schools we want not the worldly-wise nor brilliant only, but men who are convinced of the truth as it is in Jesus, and who have devoted their lives to its defense and the most forceful method of making that truth known to the world. As a body, our Ministry compares most favorably for intelligence, integrity, purity, and self-sacrifice with any profession in the world. Into it, however, from time to time come the unworthy and unprepared, and the Church must make every effort to make their coming impossible. Our Philadelphia Divinity School is making an appeal for $150,000 to better equip it and provide salaries for its professors. Though not an institution of this Diocese, it has always been closely associated with our work and has had a great place in the hearts of the Bishops of Pennsylvania and has been largely supported by endowments from the Diocese. It was established by that great Bishop, Alonzo Potter, to whom we owe so many institutions. I commend it most heartily to your sympathy and support.

We have certain institutions which are our pride and should receive from Churchmen generous support.

Work of Episcopal Hospital

The Episcopal Hospital is probably our largest and most expensive gift to the world. It stands in a part of the city where there are many accidents and where fully one-half of its patients are able to pay nothing or only a part of the expense of their care. The reading of its annual report is enlightening. I believe there is no hospital in America that does so large a work in its out-patient department. Only a small fraction of the patients are members of our Church. It is our gift to suffering humanity, irrespective of race, color or religion. It is one of the largest and most cheerful hospitals in the world, yet the hospital neither asks nor wants State support nor a portion of Welfare Drives. It is supported by those who want personally to relieve human suffering.

The great addition made to it has wonderfully increased its effectiveness. Until this addition, the hospital had no Maternity Department. Now it has one of the finest. Let us admire it and have a real pride that it is an institution of our Church. Let us not forget, however, that our pride and admiration will not support it. Get interested in it and you will not be able to resist working for and giving to it.

Episcopal Academy's 150th Anniversary

On January 6 the Episcopal Academy celebrated its 150th anniversary by a notable service in Old Christ Church. The Church was packed by friends and graduates of the Academy. The Head Master of Phillips Exeter Academy made a noble address. There is no institution that has a warmer place in the hearts of its Alumni nor a higher standing in the scholastic world. As a male child is born, parents at once make preparation for his attending this Academy. While here, they know that he will form the most valued friendships and become a cultured Christian. From here they know that he can enter any college of his choosing and have a distinguished career. In this, its 150th year, it is the great desire and aim of the Trustees that $150,000 shall be added to its Endowment Fund. I hope that good Churchmen will see that this aim is reached.

Church Mission of Help

I am Honorary President of the Church Mission of Help and commend it to you for your prayers and material help.

The Church Mission of Help, a protective agency for girls, has been active for the past eighteen years in this Diocese. It stresses the sacredness of the personality of the girl with whom it comes in contact. There have been over 2,000 of them pass over its threshold, and they have received spiritual, physical and mental help from the scientifically trained workers—all church women, affiliated with our parish life.

The Church Mission of Help is a contributing member of the National Council Church Mission of Help at 27 West 25th Street, in New York City, of which Mrs. John Glenn is President. The Council is composed of two delegates from each of its fifteen societies in different Dioceses.

We are apt to forget that the girl of today is the mother of tomorrow; and to build for the right kind of citizenship we must protect our youth and bring into their lives the beauty of right living and enable them to take part with us in the worship of God.

Home for Consumptives

The Home for Consumptives is recognized as one of the finest institutions of its kind in America. Again, irrespective of creed, its healing ministrations are extended to all afflicted with that dread disease. Lack of income from many of its endowment investments has greatly hampered its operation. With a large and beautiful plant and with the latest and best that medical science has discovered, it has done a wonderful work of healing. Many who seemed hopeless when admitted, have been restored not only to their friends, but to useful occupations in the world. It is hoped that friends of suffering humanity will hasten to its aid.

House of Rest for the Aged

The House of Rest for the Aged, notwithstanding an additional building, is full to overflowing and many are on the waiting list. The Managers are most generous and most faithful. The guests are contented and happy, but many aged women are clamoring for admission. Larger accommodations are greatly needed.

Church Training and Deaconess School

The Church Training and Deaconess School is continuing its splendid work under great financial pressure. It is of greatest value not only to this Diocese, but to the Church at large. Great effort on the part of Managers and their friends alone has made its continuance possible. It appeals for liberality on the part of all members of the Church.

Church Home for Children

The Church Home for Children at Angora is one of the happiest and healthiest homes in our part of the country. Fifty years ago when the Bishop conducted services there, 100 children were cared for. Owing to decrease of income, only about 80 can now be taken. It is hoped that this home will be remembered by the people of our Diocese, both now and in the final distribution of their property.

House of St. Michael and All Angels

St. Michael and All Angels Home for Colored Crippled Children had fallen on evil days. Much of its endowment was lost and nothing but the kindness of its many creditors enabled it to keep its doors open. In our emergency and in God's answer to our prayers the Hon. George Wharton Pepper volunteered to lead a campaign to enable it to meet its obligations and to continue its noble work for two years longer. Something over $54,000 was subscribed and the institution saved. It is the only institution in the United States that is devoted entirely to the care of Colored Crippled Children, and its closing would have been a calamity. It is your Bishop's belief that no one but the brave, God-fearing leader could have devised the plan and inspired the interest, and nothing but the perfect trust in God on the part of all the workers could have accomplished the result. We hope the campaign has done more than raise $54,000.

Many who had never heard of the institution now have a financial investment there, and we feel sure that both their prayers and their alms will constantly come before God.

The Daughters of the King, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the Young People's Fellowship are all in healthy condition and functioning splendidly.

A survey was made of the Christian Social Service Departments of the various Dioceses. It was declared that the Diocese of Pennsylvania had the finest Department in the country. For this we are greatly indebted to the Hon. Clinton Rogers Woodruff, Director of Public Welfare and Chairman of the department, who for many years has not only been the head but also the very active spirit in that Department.

The Department of Religious Education is doing faithful and notable work.

Work of Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary is our great dependable body for the accomplishment of our undertakings. The women of this organization are thoughtful, industrious, well informed and most generous. Without them many of our projects would have failed. With them, all things are possible. This organization is of greatest comfort to the Bishop. On last Thursday, at the United Thank Offering service, it presented a Missionary Offering of $10,002, raised since the General Convention of last October.

Commends Devoted Service of Diocesan Workers

I have been blessed beyond measure by the large number of intelligent, efficient and devoted workers. I doubt whether any Bishop has as great and consecrated a set of men and women on whom he can rely. We have our matchless Chancellor, our splendidly qualified Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer devoting many hours to our finances, our Examining Physician with great skill reporting upon the physical condition of Candidates for Holy Orders, our spiritually minded and intellectually alert Vice-Chairman of the Executive Council visiting Parishes and holding conferences with Vestries, the various officers of the Woman's Auxiliary ever engaged in the Church's work, the Educational Secretary dispensing Missionary Information; our Diocesan Altar Guild providing for public service of Almighty God; our six Deans are doing remarkable and self-sacrificing service. Their equals could not be found in any other Diocese. Each has a Parish or other work that commands a man's full time, yet without slighting these they devote many days and much thought to keeping their respective Convocations at a high state of efficiency. No Bishop could successfully administer this Diocese without such assistance. These and numerous other officers and organizations rendering entirely voluntary service give the Bishop great cause of thankfulness.

The Missionary work in our Diocese is receiving the constant and conscientious attention of our Archdeacon and the six Deans of the Convocations. The Foreign Work, consisting of three Italian and four Polish Churches, is making some progress. The Italian Missions are greatly increasing in membership. The Polish people have suffered terribly from the depression and their financial condition has kept many from Church attendance. Our thirteen Colored Parishes and Missions, though affected financially, are increasing numerically. The Church of St. John the Divine was dissolved and its membership formed into the Mission of the Beloved Disciple. Under the able leadership of the Rev. Charles A. Levy it is doing a splendid work.

The fifty Missions of the various Convocations are doing earnest and hard work. Several are looking forward to becoming Parishes in the near future. Services are being held every Sunday in the Lady Chapel of the Cathedral Church of Christ, the first building of the group. There is a weekly celebration of the Holy Communion Morning Prayer and an address by a Lay Canon; and Evening Prayer by a Priest of the Church.

Church's Missionary Work Active and Continuous

In regard to the general Missionary work of the Church, our interest is as great and our service as active and continuous. We have not always reached our goal, but we still have a leading place in the amounts given by the larger Dioceses. Interest in Missions is a live thing in this Diocese, not only because it yields a rich fruitage, but because it is the Master's command and the Master's will. The Church is called the "Body of Christ." It is the work of the body to do the will of the mind. The mind of the Master must be registered by His Church. To do that is the great aim of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. Last Fall the Church sent to us the Bishop of Honolulu. He gave us many stirring addresses. In the course of them he gave us an incident in the life of the Duke of Wellington. There was a gathering at the Vicarage. Incidentally, the question of Foreign Missions was mentioned. Someone remarked, "I do not believe in Foreign Missions. Let us convert our people at home before we send our money away." The Vicar joined the conversation and remarked, "I feel that way myself, and never advocate Foreign Missions." The Iron Duke turned round and with indignation declared, "If you were in my army I would have you taken out and shot. If I gave a command to my army and found an officer telling their privates not to obey my command, he should at once have the penalty of death. Our great Commander said, 'Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature!', and you, an officer in His great army, instead of promulgating His command and leading the march, are advising your privates not to obey."

I do not think there would be many executions in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The fire of devotion still burns upon our Altar, and coals from that Altar have touched the tongues of most of our Clergy. Many sacrifices are made to do the Master's will. Let us see what greater sacrifices we can make, so that the first sign of financial revival shall be registered in larger gifts to the Master's service, and especially for the spread of the Master's Kingdom.

"And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God." Philippians I—9, 10, 11.

MEMORIAL NOTICES

Of Bishops of the Church:

WALTER HENRY OVERS, Retired Bishop of Liberia, died on June 17, 1934, at his home in Jamestown, N. Y., aged sixty-four years. He was born at Harbury, England, March 26, 1870, graduating from Taylor University, Ind., in 1898. In 1893 he went to West Africa as a Missionary of the United Methodist Church, returning five years later due to ill health. He was made Deacon and ordained Priest in 1910 by Bishop Darlington, working at S. Luke's Church, Mechanicsburg, N. Y., during his Diaconate. In 1910 he became Rector of S. Paul's Church, Wellsboro, N. Y., and Rector at Ascension Church, Bradford, Pa., in 1912. On December 18, 1919, he he was consecrated Missionary Bishop of Liberia by Bishops Tuttle, Darlington and Israel, resigning in 1925 when his health finally gave way. He established thirty-five Churches and Schools during his Ministry. From 1925 to 1928 he was General Secretary of the Field Department of the National Council, and a Deputy to the General Convention in 1913, 1916 and 1919.

WILLIAM FREDERICK FABER, Third Bishop of Montana, was drowned on July 20, 1934, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. He had gone for a walk in the afternoon and his body was found two days later. He was born in Buffalo, New York, on February 27, 1860, graduating from Auburn Seminary in 1883. For nine years he served in the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church, graduating from DeLancey Divinity School in 1893, when he was made Deacon and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. He served his Diaconate at S. Peter's Church, Auburn, N. Y., becoming Rector of Grace Church, Lockport, at his ordination, where he remained until he accepted a call to S. John's Church, Detroit, in 1905. He was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Montana on November 10, 1914, by Bishops Tuttle, Brewer and Leonard, becoming Diocesan at Bishop Brewer's death in 1916.

MANUEL FERRANDO, Suffragan Bishop of Porto Rico, died on December 12, 1934, at Christ Hospital, Jersey City, in the sixty-ninth year of his age. He was born at Alicante, Spain, of an aristocratic family, on March 6, 1866, and was ordained to the Priesthood in the Roman Catholic Church, becoming Superior of a Capuchin Monastery in that country and Professor of Canon Law, and later, at his own request, a Missionary in South America. In 1895 he came to this country, attending Princeton University and Union Theological Seminary, where he graduated in 1896. About 1900 he abandoned the Roman Communion and went to Porto Rico where he established a communal missionary experiment, called The Church of Jesus. Some years later, feeling the isolation of his work, he was consecrated Bishop by Bishop Cheney of the Reformed Episcopal Church, although he was never formally attached to that Church. About 1919 he came into contact with our Mission in Porto Rico, and after considerable discussion he was consecrated a Bishop for Foreign Churches with Title as Bishop of Quebrado Timon by Bishops Gailor, Manning and Lloyd on March 15, 1923, subsequently becoming Suffragan Bishop of that District, although he was never very active, owing to poor health.

BOYD VINCENT, Retired Bishop of Southern Ohio, died at his home in Cincinnati, on January 14, 1935, in the ninetieth year of his age. He was born in Erie, Pennsylvania, on May 18, 1845, graduating from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1871, being made Deacon that same year and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. He served as Curate at Saint Paul's Church, Erie, during his Diaconate, becoming Rector of The Cross and Crown Church in 1872. He accepted a call to Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, in 1874, where he remained until his election to the Episcopate in 1889. He was consecrated as Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Ohio on January 25, 1889, by Bishops Spalding, Dudley and Penick, becoming the Second Bishop of that Diocese when Bishop Jaggar resigned in 1904. He was Senior Bishop of the Church at the time of his death, and served as Chairman of the House of Bishops from 1910 to 1916. He served as Deputy to the General Convention from Pittsburgh in 1880, 1883 and 1886.

Of Priests of the Diocese:

FRANK GOOSTRAY, Rector of the Church of The Trinity, Coatesville, died very suddenly on May 7, 1934, in the forty-third year of his age. He was born in Boston, Mass., on August 10, 1892, receiving his early education at S. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y., and graduating from the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge in 1919, being made Deacon that year by Bishop Babcock and ordained to the Priesthood in 1920 by Bishop Garland. For a few months he was Curate at the Chapel of The Mediator, accepting the Rectorship of S. John's Free Church shortly after his ordination. He remained there until 1929, when he went to Coatesville. He was also in charge of Ascension Mission at Parkesburg and of S. Cyril's Mission at Coatesville.

GILBERT EDWARD PEMBER, Rector of Christ Church and S. Michael, Germantown, died very suddenly on July 5, 1934, at Orr's Island, Maine, aged fifty-seven years. He had been ill for some time and was on a four months' furlough. He was born in New York City November 19, 1876, graduating from Trinity College in 1897 and from the Berkeley Divinity School in 1902, being made Deacon that year and ordained Priest the year following. From 1902 to 1905 he was Curate at Holy Trinity Church, Middletown, Conn.; from 1905 to 1912 Rector of Christ Church, Walton, N. Y.; from 1912 to 1915 Rector of Christ Church, Ridley Park; and from 1915 to 1933 Rector of S. Michael's Church, Germantown. In 1933 Christ Church, Germantown, and S. Michael's were united, and he became Rector of the new Parish. Active and intensely interested in all Diocesan matters, he served on many Committees of the Diocese and of his Convocation. He was an Examining Chaplain from 1917, acting as Secretary for five years; President of the Church Mission of Help for fourteen years; Secretary and later the efficient Chairman of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions; a member of The Executive Council for nine years; Deputy to the Provincial Synod from 1923 to 1927; a Deputy to the General Convention in 1928, serving also in 1931 and had been elected in 1934.

ROBERT JOHN MCFETRIDGE, Rector of the Church of The Redemption, Philadelphia, died on July 31, 1934, aged fifty-eight years. He was born June 15, 1876, in Philadelphia, receiving his education at Brown Preparatory School, University of Pennsylvania, and the Divinity School in Philadelphia. He was made Deacon in 1904 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following. Serving his Diaconate at Trinity Chapel, Crescentville, he was Curate at the Church of The Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, from 1905 to 1910, when he became Rector of S. Mark's Church, Cheyenne, Wyo. From 1910 to 1912 he was Rector at the Church of The Ascension, Pittsburgh, Pa.; from 1914 to 1914 at S. Luke's Church, Matteawan, N. Y.; from 1916 to 1917 on border duty on the Mexican front; from 1917 to 1919 Chaplain of the 28th Division, A. E. F.; from 1919 to 1923 Curate at S. Peter's Church, Philadelphia; from 1923 to 1925 Rector of S. Michael and All Angels Church, St. Louis, Mo.; when he accepted a call to the Church of The Redemption. During his residence in Wyoming he served as Rural Dean, Examining Chaplain, on the Council of Advice and as a Deputy to the General Convention.

RODERICK PROVOST COBB, a Retired Priest of this Diocese, died August 16, 1934, at Orlando, Florida, aged seventy-five years. He was born at Buckingham Court House, Virginia, on March 31, 1859, receiving his early education at Franklin and Marshall College, where he graduated in 1885, and at Princeton Theological Seminary. He was made Deacon in 1891 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following by Bishop Scarborough. He served his Diaconate at Grace Church, Crosswicks, N. J., becoming Rector of S. Paul's Church, Rahway, in 1892, and of Christ Church, Troy, N. Y., in 1900. In 1906 he came to this Diocese as Rector of S. Paul's Church, Doylestown, where he remained until 1908, when his health failed. In 1910 he was Curate at Christ Church, Media, for a year, when he was forced to go to the warmer climate of Florida, and acted as Principal of the Cathedral School at Orlando, taking occasional services at various Missions in the neighborhood.

ALFRED OVERTON TARRANT, Rector of Emmanuel Church, Kensington, died on September 21, 1934, after several months' illness, in the sixty-first year of his age. He was born in Paris, Ontario, Canada, on April 8, 1874, graduating from the University of Toronto in 1895 and from New Windsor, Maryland, in 1906 with a degree of M.D. He was made Deacon in 1895 and ordained to the Priesthood the year following in Canada. In 1897 he was Curate at S. Paul's Church, New Orleans; in 1898 Rector at the Church of The Epiphany and Our Saviour, Detroit; in 1902 Rector of the Church of The Messiah, St. Paul; and from 1907 to 1911 Rector at Calvary Church, Sandusky. He was Priest-in-Charge at Zion Church, Philadelphia, in 1917, being transferred from Western New York to this Diocese in 1918. The year following he became Rector of Emmanuel Church. He was active in Masonic circles and a Fellow of the American Association since 1913.

JOHN EDGAR JOHNSON, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died at the Episcopal Hospital on October 30, 1934, in the ninety-third year of his age. He was born in New Hampshire in 1842, graduating from Dartmouth College in 1866. For some years he was a Unitarian Minister, but was made

Deacon in 1872 and ordained the year following by Bishop Doane. During his Diaconate he served as Missionary at Green Island, accepting a call as Rector at S. Paul's Church, Hoboken, N. J., in 1873. In 1877 he became Rector of the Church of S. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia, going to S. Mark's Chapel, New York City, in 1885 and returning to Philadelphia in 1886, as a General Missionary of the Diocese. In 1887 he started services at the Bijou Theatre and was closely identified with the charitable work of the late George L. Harrison, until his health broke down and he entered the Harrison Home in 1922. He served also as Captain in the Civil War.

EDWARD RIGGS, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died at Vevey, Switzerland, on November 1, 1934. Graduating from Columbia University in 1881, he entered the General Theological Seminary and was made Deacon in 1884 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1886. From 1884 to 1893 he was Curate at S. John's Church, Stamford, Connecticut. In 1895 he came to this Diocese as Vicar of Christ Church Chapel and during his four years' tenure he added greatly to the attractiveness of that Church. In 1899 he retired because of ill health and spent the remaining years of his life in Europe, where he gave such assistance to the Churches as was possible.

WILLIAM BOOTH GUION, Chaplain at Christ Church Hospital, died on December 27, 1934, in the seventy-ninth year of his age. He was born in Brooklyn, New York, on November 20, 1856, graduating from S. Stephen's College and the General Theological Seminary in 1881. He was made Deacon that same year, becoming Curate at S. John's Church, Stockport, N. Y., and ordained to the Priesthood the year following, when he became Rector of Ascension Church, Middletown, Ohio. For many years he seems to have moved from one station to another almost annually until he became Curate at Trinity Church, Pottsville, Pa., about 1920, where he remained until 1931 when he came to this Diocese. He was Chairman of the Standing Committee and an Examining Chaplain in Dallas and an Alternate Deputy to the General Convention from Quincy in 1895.

WILLIAM WORDSWORTH TAYLOR, a Retired Priest of the Diocese, died at his home in Bridgeport on March 15, 1935, in the eightieth year of his age. He was born in Gambier, Ohio, on July 20, 1855, graduating from Kenyon College in 1875 and from the Divinity School in Philadelphia in 1879. He was made Deacon in 1879 and ordained to the Priesthood in 1880 by Bishop Stevens. From 1880 to 1884 he was Rector of S. Stephen's Church, Clifton Heights; 1884 to 1886 at S. Thomas' Church, Battle Creek, Michigan; 1886 to 1888 at Christ Church, South Amboy, New Jersey; from 1889 to 1892 at S. James, Hestonville, Philadelphia; from 1892 to 1897 at Emmanuel Church, Hastings, Michigan; from 1897 to 1900 Chaplain at The Episcopal Hospital in Philadelphia; Curate at Church of The Holy Spirit, Nice, France, for a few months; from 1901 to 1903 Rector at S. Peter's Church, Hazleton; from 1903 to 1907 at S. John's Church, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan; from 1907 to 1909 at Grace Church, Holland, Michigan; from 1909 to 1925 at Christ Church, Upper Merion, in this Diocese, when he retired. During the last few years he has been taking Supply work, especially at Valley Forge Chapel, where the Burial Services were held.

Of Deaconesses of This Diocese:

FRANCES S. LOCKE, a Retired Deaconess of this Diocese, died at Christ Church Hospital on April 1, 1935. She was born in Camden, New Jersey, in 1858 and attended Miss Van Kirk's School for Kindergarteners, graduating from the Church Training and Deaconess House in 1897, and being set apart that same year at the Church of The Saviour, Philadelphia. APPENDIX D

Report of the Standing Committee

The Standing Committee met for organization on the afternoon of May 1, 1934, and received the Report of the Secretary of the Convention that the Convention had elected as members of the Standing Committee the following:

Rev. Drs. Jefferys, Bartlett, McIlhenny, Washburn, Joiner; Messrs. Bonsall, Houston, Frazier, Barba, Williams.

Proceeding to organization, upon unanimous vote the Rev. Dr. Jefferys was elected President and Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., elected Secretary. Due to the continued illness of Mr. Frazier, Mr. William P. Barba was asked to serve as Secretary pro tem.

Committees were appointed as follows:

Budget Committee: Messrs. Houston and Barba.

Committee on Charters: Rev. Dr. Bartlett; Messrs. Williams and Ervin.

The Standing Committee gave assent to the transfer of a small piece of property in the State of New Jersey from the ownership of the Parish of St. Stephen's, Bridesburg, to the Highway Department of the State of New Jersey.

The Committee gave consent to the sale of the Rectory of St. Philip's Church, West Philadelphia.

The Committee consented to the transfer of the property of Trinity Church, Buckingham, from the Corporation to The Church Foundation.

The Committee consented to the placing of a mortgage on the property of St. Giles, Stonehurst.

The Committee consented to the request of The Church Foundation to discontinue services at the Pro-Cathedral

Church of St. Mary, Broad and South Streets, if found necessary.

The Committee approved the nomination of the Rev. John W. Walker to the vacancy on the Board of Examining Chaplains caused by the death of the Rev. Gilbert E. Pember, D.D.

The Standing Committee approved the report of its Budget Committee suggesting consideration and action by the Finance Department of the Executive Council in conjunction with the Standing Committee, to recommend to the Convention such changes in its accounting and custody of funds as would remove the necessity of making cross credits and charges amongst the several funds raised by Convention; as for example, drawing from the Episcopal Fund and from the Convention Fund to meet deficits of operation in the Church House Fund.

The Committee gave consent to the establishment of a Mission in the neighborhood of the former Parish of St. John the Divine, the name to be called the Mission of The Beloved Disciple.

The Committee approved the establishment of a Mission at 2251 W. Cumberland Street.

The Committee approved the election of the Rev. Wm. Reese Scott to fill the vacancy on the Board of Triers caused by the death of the Rev. Robert J. McFetridge.

The Committee consented to the settlement of a ground rent in the sum of $583.64, the property of St. James, Kingsessing.

The Committee unanimously consented to the election of the Rt. Rev. Middleton Stuart Barnwell to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Georgia.

The Committee begs to express its appreciation of the courtesy extended to the Convention by the Rector and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity in placing the Church at the disposal of the Convention for its meetings.

The Committee approved the nomination by the Bishop as Canons of the Cathedral for the term expiring 1939 the Rev. Drs. Bartlett and Carter; Messrs. Reed A. Morgan and Malcolm Lloyd.

The Committee gave consideration to a memorial from the Church Mission of Help suggesting that the present vacant Episcopal residence, 251 South 22nd Street, be made available for the administrative headquarters of the Church Mission of Help.

The Bishop brought to the attention of the Standing Committee the matter of permitting the Church of L'Emmanuello to be rented to a proposed congregation of Italian Catholics known as the Corporation of Italian Catholics in the City of Philadelphia. The matter was referred to an appropriate Committee for survey and report back through the office of the Bishop.

The Committee gave consent to the transfer of a small piece of land in Monmouth County, New Jersey, from the ownership of St. Clement's Church to the ownership of the State Highway Department of New Jersey.

We are glad to note the increasing health of Mr. W. W. Frazier, Jr., who so long has been a useful member of the Standing Committee.

During its numerous meetings in the year 1934-35, the Standing Committee gave earnest consideration to the matter of arranging suitable procedure for the admission of candidates for the several Orders for the Ministry, and its special committee has prepared a plan which has met with the approval of the Bishop, and which plan will be given full publication in due course.

The Standing Committee reports receipt of an offer to sell to the Diocese the property adjoining the Church House and known as 204 South Nineteenth Street, and replied to the agent bringing the matter to the attention of the Diocese that "So long as the Diocese was obliged to carry the property known as the Bishop's residence, 251 South Twenty-second Street, it felt itself unable to give consideration to the offer to purchase the property at 204 South Nineteenth Street."

The Standing Committee received and is giving consideration to the audit of the whole financial situation of the Diocese, making its study in conjunction with the Finance Department of the Executive Council and with the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Standing Committee gave consent to the increasing of the mortgage on the Rectory of the Parish of St. Mary, Hamilton Village, from the present figure of $3,000 to the original figure of $6,500.

During the year the following Postulants were approved as Candidates for Holy Orders:

Mr. Melville Brooks Gurley

W. P. BABRA,
Secretary Pro Tem.

APPENDIX E

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the Year 1934

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Pennsylvania for the year 1934, audited, is submitted herewith.

Due to the failure of a number of Parishes and Missions to pay their expectations, it was impossible for the Diocese to pay its expectation of $150,000.00 to the National Council. It was, however, able to send $142,742.34.

While the Diocese could not share the unpaid balance due New York because of the present accumulated deficit of $24,949.16, the amount sent to the National Council was nearly 53% of its total divisible funds from normal sources and Diocesan Contributors' Fund.

The Parishes and Missions continue to send their Missionary money very irregularly, as will be noted by the following table:

Number of Parishes and Missions Remitting per Annum	Number of Remittances per Annum
1	12
14	11
4	10

It is obvious the Diocese cannot pay its monthly proportion to the National Council and at the same time meet its own obligations in the Diocese without borrowing money to do so, unless we secure the full co-operation of the Parishes and Missions, which means sending their missionary money regularly.

The Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer desire again to express their grateful appreciation to Messrs. Drexel and Company for the continuation of the advantageous arrangements whereby a credit to a limited amount has been extended, and to the Parishes and Missions, and the Woman's Auxiliaries, as well as other organizations of the Diocese, for their co-operation, and to the financial staff in the Treasurer's office for its efficient and faithful service throughout the year.

A. V. MORTON

APPENDIX F

Report of the Executive Council for 1934

At the beginning and the end of the year the Council suffered severe losses in the passing away of Mr. Edward H. Bonsall and Mr. William J. Dickson, both of whom had given devoted service as members of the Council for many years.

The budget for 1935 was adopted in the sum of $280,000 made up of $250,000 divisible funds, and $30,000 non-divisible. The Expectation sent to the National Council was one-half of the divisible funds or $125,000. There is a deficit of about $25,000, carried by the Diocese, brought over from previous years due to borrowings in the past in order to pay in full the annual Expectations to the National Council. The budget has been reduced in three years by $115,000.

The Council aided, especially through its Publicity Department, the Pilgrimage to the opening day of General Convention, which under the leadership of our Bishop contributed so largely to the impressive congregation present at Atlantic City on that day.

The Parish of St. John the Divine, having become bankrupt, proceedings in court are now going on for the dissolution of the corporation, the parish having voted to dissolve and surrender its charter. Its property has been bought in by the Diocese as a result of foreclosure proceedings and permission has been given to the new Mission of the Beloved Disciple to use this property.

The visit of Bishop Littell, the Rev. R. P. Kreitler, S. T. D., and Mrs. Cross, wife of the Bishop of Spokane, at the request of the National Council timed to aid the Every Member Canvass in our parishes, was arranged by the Field Department.

The Department of Education has had a gratifying increase in the use made by our parishes of its many means of helping in religious education.

The Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions has been active in the consideration of various proposed acts in the Legislature of Pennsylvania and in Congress at Washington, and also has endeavored to assist the Home of St. Michael and All Angels and St. John's Settlement House.

The Council has also passed a resolution that Church Institutions in the Diocese should ask the approval of the Bishop and Council before undertaking campaigns for money in the Diocese.

The reports of the Departments of the Council follow.

JAMES F. BULLITT, Secretary

REPORT OF FIELD DEPARTMENT

The Field Department has held the minimum number of meetings necessary to efficiently conduct the business delegated to it by the Executive Council.

Immediately after the General Convention the National Council assigned the Rt. Rev. S. Harrington Littell, S. T. D., the Rev. Robert P. Kreitler, S. T. D., and Mrs. Edward M. Cross to the Diocese for the purpose of stimulating efforts in the Every Member Canvass.

Meetings were held in the several convocations of West Philadelphia, Germantown, South Philadelphia and Norristown.

The attendance at the meetings demonstrated that the effort was very worth-while. Following the suggestion of the National Council team, the Diocese adopted the plan of self-apportionment as applied to the parochial quotas. This plan has not proven satisfactory and for the future the Diocesan Executive Council has decided to apportion a quota on a mathematical basis.

The Department arranged for the holding of a regional conference of the National Field Department, February 19-20. Bishop Cook and Dr. Reinheimer conducted it. Representatives from the Dioceses of Maryland, Pittsburgh, Delaware and Pennsylvania attended.

The Field Department records its findings to the effect that we should have a full-time Field Worker in this Diocese. The work of the Field Department is not to be confused with other efforts which are effectively administered. There are approximately two hundred parishes and missions in the Diocese. If the Field Work is to be stimulated, it is obvious that only a full-time worker could cover the territory. Such a worker should be under the direction of the Bishop and should go into each parish and mission with both the authority and invitation of the Bishop. Due to the depleted number of General Secretaries of the National Department, we can look for little assistance from them in the future, therefore our need is the more apparent.

A word may be in order regarding the duty of the Department. We can define it best by saying what it is not. It is not primarily for the raising of money. It is not to stimulate giving for missions only. It is not to suggest new ways by which money can be painlessly extracted from unwilling givers. Its duty is to inform and interest our people in the whole work of the whole Church. The Field Department should and can well be the medium of conveying by the spoken word the state of the Church everywhere. An informed and interested member will be a supporting one.

FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The regular monthly meetings of the Finance Department have been well attended, although they are held at 10:30 A. M., and adjournment is frequently as late as 1 P. M.

The Department has given much consideration to the many financial problems that arise from time to time and particularly to the budget which has had to be largely curtailed during the past three years. In 1932, the budget was $395,000 and in 1935, $280,000, a decrease of $115,000 or 29 per cent.

The Department has endeavored to accomplish this reduction as consistently as possible and without serious detriment to the service.

It is hoped that continued reduction can be avoided by a return of better conditions in the near future.

JOSHUA ASH PEARSON
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

Mr. Spencer Ervin has become Chairman of the Department succeeding Rev. James M. Collins.

Mr. W. W. Finn has acted as Treasurer of the Department, taking temporarily the place of Mr. Bonsall, whose loss was reported last year, and an arrangement has now been made by which the Church Foundation has become the Treasurer receiving the income and paying it out on the order of the Department.

A Committee of the Department has been investigating the condition of the securities which formerly belonged to the old Board of Missions and are now held by the Church Foundation for this Department, and is preparing a statement as to the conditions in the Deeds of Trust on which these securities are held.

Four missions: St. John's Mission, Briar Road; Epiphany, Royersford; Holy Sacrament, Highland Park; and Ascension, Parkesburg, have relinquished for 1935 all aid from the Diocese. Very considerable reductions have been made in the appropriations for the four missions working among the Poles. Two new missions have been organized during the year; the Mission of the Beloved Disciple, at Fifty-seventh and Pearl Streets, Phila., and St. Paul's, North Penn, temporarily at 2251 West Cumberland Street, Phila.

There are 57 missions of the Diocese having 8,684 Communicants, contributing for themselves and the budget $88,589.68, and receiving support from the Diocese to the amount of $51,310. These missions gave to the budget of the Diocese $9,404.73.

CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

Real progress was made in the missionary work in the Convocation of Chester during the past year. One new church building was erected; two missions assumed their entire financial obligation; the "Expectations" for Missions from the parishes was increased $10,000, by including gifts to the Diocesan Contributor's Fund as part of the "Expectations."

At Aronimink, Holy Comforter Congregation has been worshipping in a basement church. It was impossible, for obvious reasons to carry on this work under the existing conditions and, after discussing the matter for more than a year, it was finally decided to erect a church building on the foundations laid down several years before.

The building cost $10,000 without furnishings; this money was obtained from the following sources:

$5,000 from the congregation, $1,000 of which was paid in cash.

$4,000 on reducing notes.

$2,500 from the Woman's Auxiliary of the Convocation.

$2,000 from the Church Extension Fund.

$500 personal gift from Bishop Taitt.

The Church was erected during the summer and fall and the first service held in the month of November. Owing to the illness of the Rector, the parish has been under a great handicap, but now that the Rector is again taking the services in a new church building the congregation has taken heart and is moving forward.

Bishop Taitt appointed the Rev. Mr. Fryer to Holy Sacrament, Highland Park in February, 1934, with the understanding that the mission would assume its financial obligations January 1st, 1935. Much progress has been accomplished and not only are they paying the full salary but they have raised their "Expectation" from $300 to $500 a year. The congregation and Church School has doubled in attendance during the past year.

With a change of Rectors at Trinity, Coatesville, caused by the death of the Rev. Mr. Goostray, the status of Ascension Mission, Parkesburg, was changed to a self-supporting mission relieving the Diocese of $150 a year.

St. Giles, Stonehurst, has become a Chapel of Holy Apostles, Philadelphia. Dr. Toop appointed the Rev. Mr. Anderson as Vicar. The Chapel will receive missionary aid for 1935 and 1936. We hope there will be sufficient improvement by that time to enable the Chapel to raise its own expenses.

St. Faith, Brookline, has been outstanding in its development. The small building erected in 1933 is no longer adequate and plans are to be presented to the congregation for an enlarged church building and a new parish house.

The Convocation is receiving $10,500 for its missionary work for the year 1935. Four years ago, we asked and received $17,000. We hope, wherever possible, to have our missions become independent, self-supporting parishes.

The Convocation is fortunate, indeed, to have such an able, forward looking, progressive set of missionaries to carry on the work of its missions.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE CONVOCATION OF CHESTER

The spring and fall meetings were held as usual in 1934, the former at St. George's, Ardmore, with an attendance of 394 and the latter at St. Paul's, Chester, where 425 answered the roll call.

Missionaries from Cuba and Wyoming gave very interesting addresses as did Bishop Taitt, who had just returned from Russia. Impressive reports of the activities of the Auxiliary in Diocese and Convocation were also given by their representatives.

As shown by the Treasurer's Report which follows, the women gave the sum of $2,000 to Trinity Mission, Collingdale, towards the reduction of their mortgage debt.

CONVOCATION OF GERMANTOWN

The missionary work of the Convocation goes steadily on. By missionary work we mean not only that which is usually thought of, but also that work which does not come under our care. All forward work in religion is missionary work. Every clergyman in the Convocation, faithfully working his field, is a missionary. Constantly year in and year out there is going on a real missionary work in the Convocation which is never reported and seldom thought of. Not only from parish churches but also from the numerous strategically situated mission stations, representatives, yours and mine, are going forth regularly to administer to those in isolated places. These missionaries hurry over country road and city street in sleet, sunshine and storm to proclaim to the world that God and His Church care.

Ascension, Rhawnhurst, has been without a resident clergyman throughout the year, the services having been taken by a lay-reader with frequent attendance of a priest. It was discovered that there were many years' arrears of taxes on its excess property. A committee, appointed by the Department, now has the situation in hand.

After many years of painstaking service, Rev. W. J. Wilkie retired on January 1, 1935. Your Dean has visited widely in the area he covered and everywhere he goes he hears high praise of the work of this faithful shepherd. He is much beloved and deeply appreciated. As he has had charge of both Emmanuel, Quakertown, and Holy Trinity, Lansdale, in order to have his successor responsible to one Convocation, only the work at Quakertown has been ceded by our Convocation to that of Norristown.

Grace, Hulmeville, keeps on growing though its people must be gathered from a large area. Its clergyman is sadly handicapped by the fact that his house is bitterly cold in winter through an inadequate heating system. Something must be done to improve this condition. Many of the rectories in Bucks County are in shocking condition. There isn't a rectory there that does not need paint, a rebuilt roof or better heating facilities. If something is not done serious damage will occur to the physical property and we may drive out good men who will not be able to remain in such houses.

Incarnation, Morrisville, remedied such conditions in its rectory, having paid for it themselves, and also $130 on the $1,530 floating debt which the present missionary found in January, 1934.

Messiah, Oxford Circle, is progressing satisfactorily and is proving the wisdom of having the full-time service of their Rector.

St Andrew, Yardley, has had a good year but its rectory is unsatisfactory, the Rector having had to move to a local hotel during the very severe weather. He has now resigned to become Chaplain of Christ Church Hospital.

St. Andrew, Somerton, is badly located, and it would be wise to move it out of the field to a site where it could be seen.

St. Gabriel, Feltonville, has again assumed a larger share of self-support.

There is nothing outstanding as to the other missions of the Convocation except St. John, West Oak Lane. Though only two years old it has progressed to a point where on January 1, 1935, it was given the full-time service of a priest-in-charge. It has come up from nothing to an attendance that often reaches more than 100 and it is raising annually over $1,300 for its own support.

The Executive Committee of our Convocation has been constituted and it is now functioning. Also a group of laymen were organized during the year for Convocational purposes and they have carried out successfully two projects for the Diocese in the Convocation.

A branch of the Diocesan Normal School was organized for Bucks County and its sessions were surprisingly well attended.

The meetings of the Convocation itself are increasingly well attended and the future look bright.

The Woman's Aid held a fête and supper and raised a considerable sum of money which was turned over to the Diocese to prevent cuts in the salaries of missionaries.

CONVOCATION OF NORRISTOWN

Several important changes have taken place in this Convocation during the past year.

Rev. Robert G. Frazier in November assumed charge of St. Anne's, Willow Grove, in succession to Rev. George C. Anderson who was called to St. Giles Church, Stonehurst, last September. We look for continued growth and development of this work under Mr. Frazier's leadership.

Last fall, Rev. William J. Wilkie resigned as missionary in charge of Holy Trinity Mission, Lansdale, after eighteen years of devoted and consecrated service there, in conjunction with Emmanuel Mission, Quakertown, in the Convocation of Germantown. The Bishop appointed Rev. J. Aubrey Cragg to the charge of these two missions beginning January 1, 1935, and the Convocation of Germantown has ceded the direction of the work in Quakertown to this Convocation, to simplify the working out of this joint undertaking.

The Convocation at its October meeting placed upon its records an expression of deep appreciation of Mr. Wilkie's long and faithful service to the missionary work of our Convocation and of the personal affection and respect of all his associates.

In September, Ephiphany Mission, Royersford, undertook full responsibility for the support of their missionary, Rev. Mr. Harry, thereby releasing the $500 formerly contributed by the Diocese.

CONVOCATION OF NORTH PHILADELPHIA

The missions of the Convocation fall under three groups: the racial, Polish, Italian and Colored; the special group which operates under commissions who report through the Convocation, but are independent of it; and the five centers of missionary endeavor, St. George, Richmond; St. George, Venango; St. Ambrose; St. Barnabas; St. Bartholomew.

The Sunday School Lenten offering increased slightly and the total givings of the Convocation to the budget were slightly in excess of the amount anticipated. The missions have rendered faithful service under trying circumstances and with little opportunity for development.

It is much to be regretted that the Rev. A. H. Hord, who has been such a faithful minister to the people of St. George, Venango, during the past year has had to resign as of June 1, 1935. His labor has been one of love and has met a hearty response from the people of St. George's.

At the annual meeting in January, 1935, the new Parish Hall Extension of St. Augustine Mission was dedicated by Bishop Taitt. This, with several other improvements, was made possible by grants from the Woman's Aid, the Church Extension Fund, the Bishop's Bricks Fund, The Advancement Society, and the American Church Bullding Fund Commission. The people of the mission raised toward these improvements the sum of $1,006 and the missionary, Rev. Joseph H. Hudson, has been much encouraged by the enthusiasm of his people during this year.

A private house with a store basement at 2251 W. Cumberland Street was rented for a new work among the colored people, and the Rev. C. A. Levy put in charge. It has been given recognition as a mission of the Diocese under the name of St. Paul's, North Penn. Mr. Levy having been transferred to West Philadelphia, the new mission has been put in charge of the Rev. James N. Deaver in connection with his work at St. Christopher's Mission.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Aid, Mrs. Winfield C. Scott, after four years of service as Chairman, found it necessary to resign and Mrs. Paul F. Mowry, Treasurer, was elected to succeed Mrs. Scott.

Again a most successful colonial party was held at "Wyck," and it is hoped to hold another there on June 6, 1935.

The mortgage on the Mission of St. Mary the Annunciation has been, through the Church Extension Fund, reduced by $1,500. Polish work has progressed, particularly the Church of the Advent, where substantial improvements made possible through the use of income from its endowment and the material assistance of the members of the congregation, under the leadership of the Rev. Edward M. Baczewski, were dedicated in the early fall. (Fire broke out in the Church causing almost a complete wreckage on April 1, 1935. It is hoped that the insurance will enable the congregation to rebuild.)

The Dean has served during the year as Active Chairman of the Board of Managers of St. John's Settlement House, and many individuals and Churches in the Convocation have given support to this undertaking. The Staff in residence have given whole-hearted and unselfish service in the Settlement House and with the assistance of Sisters from St. Clement Church, a Church School on Sunday and a Church School for Colored on Mondays have been conducted.

The Dean has prepared a talk on "The Convocation of North Philadelphia as a Missionary Field" and finds an abundance of material in the work being done, the spirit manifested and the results obtained. The Convocation is a real fellowship of service and idealism.

CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

The Convocation of South Philadelphia held two successful meetings during the year.

The meetings were well attended and more interest was manifested in the missionary work of the Diocese and the Church at large. South Philadelphia gave towards this work $51,295.35.

The By-Laws of the Convocation were revised to conform to the new Canon and an Executive Committee was elected.

The serivice for the Presentation of the Lenten Offering was well worth while. We made a pilgrimage to Old Christ Church. It was fine to see the Church packed with "pilgrims."

The Mission of the Holy Spirit under the fostering care of the Rev, Arthur Moore more than held its own this trying year. Most of the people connected with the Mission are unemployed and able to give but little toward the support of the work.

However, as there are more than a hundred children in the Church School, it would seem to be worth while to continue this work.

The Mission of the Transfiguration hasn't made the progress we hoped for. Most of the interested people of the Mission are receiving aid from one source or another. The Rev. H. Cresson McHenry who has supervised the work of the mission for years, found it impossible to give the time and attention that the mission needs and requested the Bishop to be relieved of the work. The Bishop has appointed Mr. Archie Montgomery, a devoted layman, in charge of the missions.

The Italian Mission of L'Emmanuello carries on its work at St. Elizabeth's. The Friends of St. Elizabeth's had a drive for funds in October and from the amount of pledges received it would seem that the work should go on without a great deal of financial anxiety. The Church of L'Emmanuello on Christian Street still belongs to the Diocese and is badly in need of repairs.

The Woman's Aid, under the able leadership of Mrs. Frederick Fox, held three meetings during the year. The activities of the women are varied. There is a branch of the Needlework Guild called South Philadelphia Convocation. Sixteen churches contributed 609 new garments and $45.10 in cash. The garments were sent to our Diocesan Institutions. There is a committee for work among the Isolated. Thirteen churches in South Philadelphia are doing a splendid piece of work among our "Shut-ins." Each church has its own Chairman and is under the direction of Miss L. J. Willis, a graduate of Bishop Tuttle's School. Visits are made; letters written and literature for special days and other festival days is sent through the mail or delivered by the Chairman.

The Eighth Educational Week for the Blind, March 18, was well supported by generous donations of food and contributions of money. Fifteen churches in South Philadelphia co-operated in this work.

The Elizabeth Price Martin League for Service is doing a grand piece of work at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

On November 5, 1934, at the regular meeting of the Convocation, there was a round table conference on missions led by Mrs. Edward M. Cross. Following this was a meeting on November 20, at which 14 parishes were represented and 43 delegates were present. It was an all-day meeting led by Mrs. Frank Bonynge, the Educational Secretary of South Philadelphia. The object was to create a wider interest in Mission Study in the various parishes and missions and the subject was Japan.

I am truly grateful to the clergy and laymen and women for their co-operation during the year 1934.

CONVOCATION OF WEST PHILADELPHIA

The missionary work of the Convocation has been carried on in a most satisfactory manner. Our missionaries have done their work effectively, and in spite of many obstacles real progress has been made.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation, under the direction of its president, Mrs. C. Frank Miller, and her splendid group of officers, is putting new life in the missionary enterprises of the Convocation. These women are making personal contacts with the missionaries and their work. These contacts have been very helpful and inspiring. We wish to record our deep appreciation for all this interest and activity.

The work at St. Monica's is being concentrated more and more at Forty-second Street and Woodland Avenue, where the field is ripe for a splendid piece of work. The January Call of the Church Extension Fund has been allocated partly to necessary improvements to the building and the correction of a dangerous condition in the basement floor. When completed these changes will afford opportunity for further extension of the work in this mission.

Through the generosity of the Advancement Society, and with the aid of the Church Extension Fund, a new heating plant is to be installed at St. Cyprian's, Elmwood. There has not been an adequate heating system in the building since its erection. This improvement will create interest and give comfort to the worshippers at this mission.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation has made it possible to have the interior of St. Titus' Mission repainted, thus greatly improving its appearance and giving added satisfaction to the members.

Owing to the discontinuance of the work at the Church of St. John the Divine, it was deemed advisable to organize a new mission to minister to the needs of the colored people in the section of West Philadelphia west of Fifty-second Street and north of Market Street, where there are tremendous possibilities. The Mission of the Beloved Disciple has been organized and the Bishop has appointed the Rev. Charles A. Levy, Priest-in-Charge. We are happy to welcome him to the Convocation. This mission is at present occupying the building now in the possession of the Diocese and formerly used by the congregation of St. John the Divine.

There is a splendid spirit of fellowship prevailing among the clergy and the lay delegates to the Convocation, which bids fair to give added stimulus to further improvements in the Church's work in this Convocation.

The various statistical reports connected with the work of the Convocation follow.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

If there be one department more than any other which has justified its formation it is the Department of Publicity. In this day and generation, great corporate groups, such as the automobile and oil industries, make a great selling point of the word "service." The Department of Publicity is a real service department to the whole Diocese and is constantly being utilized by the clergy and laity in many and various ways. The secret of the success of this Department is the willingness and cheerfulness of the Director, Mr. Samuel Warnock, to help whenever he can. He never says, "no," be it a small job or a great task. Being trained as a "newspaper man," he knows how to interpret news and the secular press relies on his judgment. If Church news appears inaccurate in the press it is because the news was not given through the Department of Publicity. The Director was of great service during the General Convention to the many persons who desired information. The Information Bureau of the Church House has been established in this office and more and more is its usefulness demonstrated. Do you realize the store of knowledge in the Reference Bureau of the Department? Records of every description have been indexed—histories of parishes—sketches of clergy of this and other Dioceses—photographs, etc. This is for your use. The Department gave time and thought in collecting these data justifying its motto of "service."

The Chairman of the Historical Committee of the Diocese of New Jersey, which had the responsibility of preparing the film shown at the General Convention, has expressed his appreciation of the assistance which the Department gave his committee in the preliminary work and also of the suggestions made by Mr. Warnock. Those who saw the film may have recognized that some of the striking scenes were from our own Diocesan film made some years ago and, contributed by The Church Club, was prepared under the direction of the Department.

Dr. Washburn, Chairman of the Diocesan Committee on the 150th Anniversary of the Diocese has also expressed his appreciation of the assistance given him by the Department.

Before going into the other activities of the Department your Chairman must willingly pause here to say a word of commendation of the splendid work done by Miss Cairns, assistant to Mr. Warnock. She too has the spirit of the Department to serve cheerfully and faithfully at all times to all persons. She is a member of All Saints, Moyamensing, and she is devoted to her work in the parish as well as in the Diocese.

The Church News

The Chairman, on behalf of the Department, feels it a pleasure to be able to report that THE CHURCH NEWS of the Diocese, now in the twenty-third year of its useful existence, is still carrying on without any financial aid from the Diocese. How long it will be able to do so in these days of economic stress is problematic, but its management is hopeful and optimistic and is maintaining its standard and reputation as one of the best Diocesan papers in the Church, as has been frankly conceded in comments which have reached the Chairman from numerous clergy and laity in our own as well as other Dioceses The paper merits a much wider circulation and the Department urges that every member of the Convention not already enrolled as a subscriber do so without delay that the paper may be a regular visitor to his home. During the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, THE CHURCH NEWS was operated at a small deficit of $205, which it was able to absorb out of a reserve it had safeguarded during better times. In making this report, the Department feels it would be remiss if it did not recommend to the attention of the members of the Church the advertisers who have recognized its quality circulation, and have given it their patronage.

Mrs. Weigand, Acting Business Manager of THE CHURCH NEWS, a member of St. Matthew's, Francisville, has been a most efficient and faithful worker for the "News."

Church Extension Fund

The Department continues to have the privilege of preparing and publishing the information relating to the Bishop's Calls to the members of the Church Extension Fund, the past twelve months, representing the twelfth year it has been permitted to render this service. During the year 1934, the total income from the three Calls, plus delayed payments received in 1934 from previous Calls, amounted to $6,427.50, as compared with a total of $6,899.67 received in 1933, or a decrease in receipts of $472.17. In its report of last year attention was called to the decreasing income which the fund was experiencing from its former peak of approximately $12,000, and suggested consideration of some plans for stimulating interest and support that might help to turn the tide. The three Calls issued in 1934 designated as the beneficiaries St. Barnabas, in the Germantown Convocation; St. Augustines's and St. Mary Annunciation, in the North Philadelphia Convocation. The Call for St. Barnabas realized $2,094.21; the one for St. Augustine's, $2,038.17, and for St. Mary Annunciation, $1,956.16.

Use of Church House

The Department continues to give its attention to the allocation of rooms for the many meetings which are held in the Church House during the year, and maintains a record of all such meetings. During the year a total of 517 meetings of all kinds were held in the building as compared with 533 in the previous year. This use of the Church House, as has been pointed out in previous reports, actually represents a service it gives during a nine months' period as during the vacation season, from about the middle of June to about the middle of September, only occasional meetings are held, and it does not include meetings which are held in the Annex. The Department has made every effort to meet all requests for use of the Church House and, except in one or two instances where groups overlooked notifying the Church House of their desire to use the building, there was experienced no difficulty or confusion. In the exceptions noted it was necessary to assign those meetings to smaller rooms. The Department desires to report the co-operation it received from groups assigned to specific rooms for their regular stated meetings in generously moving to other rooms to accommodate special meetings desired by other groups needing larger rooms.

CHARLES H. LONG
Chairman, Dept. of Publicity

THE COMMISSION ON RECRUITING FOR THE MINISTRY

The Commission on Recruiting for the Ministry found it necessary to confine grants of financial aid to young men of the Diocese preparing for the ministry to those only who have been receiving this grant in past years. The decreased income of the Diocese made it needful to refuse grants to all new applicants, and in line with reductions in stipends and expenses generally, to decrease the grants by ten per cent from previous years. The result has been that the smallest number of young men of the Diocese for many years past have been assisted in this way, only 15 receiving grants for the past academic year. Nearly a dozen applicants had to be refused.

Naturally, this condition exists solely from the need of retrenchment financially, but it dare not be allowed to continue without serious danger to the Church's work. The Church, the Diocese and the individual parishes stand in need of a constantly developing group of ordinands for the Ministry, and it is perilous to thus limit the number who are preparing for this most important part of the work of the Church. It is to be hoped that the income from parishes to the work of the Diocese will so increase as to care for a larger number of men preparing for the Ministry.

JAMES M. NIBLO
Chairman

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Department of Religious Education during the year 1934 served 146 parishes and missions. The steady increase in the number of parishes calling upon the Department for help is a happy indication of its usefulness and worth.

The Department's working contacts have been as follows: 1932, 111 parishes; 1933, 130 parishes; 1934, 146 parishes.

The office was open daily from early September until the middle of June. 1,296 visitors to Room 30 were recorded, an increase of 200 over the previous year. This does not include the many who came for meetings and conferences.

Chairmen of Commissions: Rev. P. H. Steinmetz, Church School; Rev. Howard W. Fulweiler, Student; Rev. W. H. Pickford, Teacher Training; Rev. L. C. Lewis, Ph. D., Young People.

Staff: Miss Elizabeth P. Frazier, Field Secretary (serving her third year); Miss Gertrude Brodhead, Office Secretary (serving her sixth year).

The chief activities of the Department were (1) Office and Library, (2) Field Work, (3) Normal School. The Department is grateful to the Staff and to the Commissions for the excellent service rendered in these and many other activities.

Field Work

Our Field Worker, Miss Frazier, continued the plan of working intensively in certain Church Schools and served the following parishes: St. Ambrose—four weeks; St. Paul's, Overbrook—four; St. Martin's, Marcus Hook—three; St. John the Baptist, and St. John's Mission, West Oak Lane—four; Holy Innocents, Tacony—four; Christ Church, Eddington—three.

She visited and surveyed seven other parishes, and held 240 conferences in the office. Her work brought her in touch with 52 parishes and missions. She assisted in curriculum building, helped the superintendents of various departments make plans and talked over problems with individual teachers. She addressed and attended meetings too numerous to mention.

Finances

The budget of $3,160 allowed the Department by the Executive Council was expended with strict economy, and a small balance returned to the Diocese at the close of the year.

Commissions

Adult Commission

It is unfortunate that the Commission is inactive as there is much work to be done in this field. A special committee to promote attendance at summer conferences conducted a supper meeting at St. Paul's Church, Overbrook, in May.

Church School Commission

This Commission carried on bravely for half the year without a Chairman, as Miss Hilda Shaul unfortunately had to resign in May.

The Lenten Offering amounted to $41,685.79, which was only $837.74 less than the year before. The Advent Offering and Bishop's Bricks Fund, under the new plan of providing a choice of objects for the Church Schools to vote upon, showed an increase of $296.14. The offering amounted to $1,196.59, and was divided between the heating plant for St. Augustine's, $502.15, and the salary of a City Mission missionary, $694.33.

We regret that our Christmas Box Secretary, Miss Margaret Earle, resigned in October after seven years of service, and thank her heartily for her work. 1,593 gifts were sent to missions outside the Diocese (571 foreign and 1,022 domestic and colored) and 1,690 gifts were supplied to institutions and missions within the Diocese. An article entitled "Re-thinking Christmas Giving" was circulated in the effort to improve the way in which gifts are collected and distributed.

Miss Mary Simms continued to help in the field of religious drama. Many plays and costumes were loaned.

About 30 new Church School books were added to the Library and an average of 60 books and plays were constantly in use.

Student Commission

Some 240 Episcopal students were listed in 60 odd colleges, and 50 preparatory students' names were given at various schools. The local or student pastors were written concerning these students, and the Bishop sent a letter to the students in Lent.

Rev. William B. Stimson became the chaplain for the Episcopal students at the University of Pennsylvania. St. Mary's Church is now the center of this student work. Work in other educational institutions in the Diocese has been continued, especially at Drexel Institute and Temple University.

Teacher Training Commission

The 1934 spring semester of the Normal School had an enrollment of 224 students in 17 courses and three series of conferences for Church School teachers.

The chairman, Rev. Herbert Johnson, gave much new enthusiasm to the school and his resignation before the fall term was accepted with regret. The 1934 fall semester had 164 students from 60 parishes and 17 courses in the curriculum.

In the last three years the Normal School has reached approximately 500 students from 100 parishes. A five-week extension school was held in Bucks County in the fall with five courses offered and over 50 students enrolled.

The Commission conducted the 64th Annual Church School Institute in October at the Christian Association, Thirty-sixth and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, on the theme, "In the Life of the Church."

Young People's Commission

Formerly this Commission was chiefly concerned with the Young People's Fellowship, but during the year greatly broadened its field of operation by taking responsibility for the work among all young people between the ages of 14 and 25 years, no matter how organized. Leaders of the various Diocesan organizations for young people now serve on this Commission. During the year the Young People's League was formed as the Diocesan organization for colored young people.

LOUIS W. PITT
Chairman

To the Executive Council of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The Department of Christian Social Service and Institutions desires to report a year of continuous activity in various directions.

The latter part of the Diocesan year has been very active in examining pending legislation and in promoting the passage of the Hasty Marriage Bill, which provides for a lapse of three days between the application for a license to marry and its issuance, and also of the Homestead Bill which forbids a man to mortgage the homestead without the joinder of his wife. Against the sundry bills authorizing lotteries and various form of gambling the Department has presented carefully prepared arguments to the legislative committee. A copy of the sub-committee's statement is attached to this report. Among other pending legislation to which we are giving attention are workmen's compensation, reorganization of local poor boards, and sterilization.

Our Church institutions and those in which the Church's name appears have been receiving thoughtful consideration at the hands of a special committee, the first report of which is attached to this report.

A very considerable amount of progress has been made in the matter of co-ordinating the Church work among children. A series of conferences have been held under the auspices of a special committee of the Department and the various boards of management and the superintending staffs have been brought into closer co-operation. Very considerable progress in the way of effecting co-ordination has been accomplished and more is expected for the coming year. Concerning this work the State Secretary of Welfare, under date of April 1st, has written to the Bishop in these words: "The service which the City Mission, through Dr. Newell and Miss Alfriend, is rendering in bringing together other organizations of the Episcopal Church working with dependent children of their faith, seems most constructive. Co-ordination of services of this kind makes for better service to the children, and is highly desirable."

Your Department wishes to state that, in obedience with the request of the Diocesan Convention, it has kept in close touch with the situation at Scottsboro and is able to report that as a result of the interest of prominent Church people led by the Bishop of Alabama, the scandal with regard to restricted jury lists has been cleaned up. As the case is far from settled we will continue to follow further developments, reporting on them to the Council from time to time as the occasion may require.

In the matter of motion pictures, the Department drafted a memorial to General Convention in accordance with the directions of the Diocesan Convention and forwarded the same to the deputies from the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The memorial was made the basis of the statement made by General Convention. This work is being followed up through the parishes with what we hope will be beneficial results. The specific objective is to create interest in adherence to the Legion of Decency.

St. John's House and the House of St. Michael and All

Angels have been receiving sympathetic attention although the Department has no formal connection with either.

The Department has gone on record as opposed to the exhibition of motion pictures on Sunday.

The January meeting of the Department was in the form of a luncheon at which Mrs. John M. Glenn of the Family Welfare Society of America, and President of the National Church Mission of Help, made an admirable address on the general scope of social service activities.

APPENDIX H

Report of the Cathedral Chapter

Services have been held continuously during the year 1934 in the Chapel of St. Mary of the Cathedral Church of Christ. From January until the end of October, Evening Prayer was said each Saturday afternoon. On All Saints' Day, the heating apparatus having been installed, Bishop Taitt celebrated the first Service of the Holy Communion, with the Chapel crowded to its capacity. At the same time the memorial tablet, designating the Watson Memorial was dedicated by the Bishop.

From this time on, the full complement of Sunday Services has been maintained at the Cathedral. Holy Communion is celebrated at nine o'clock; Morning Prayer is read by the Lay Canons at eleven o'clock; Evening Prayer is read at four o'clock in the afternoon. One person has been baptized and one presented to the Bishop for Confirmation.

The Chapter has been giving serious thought to the advancement of the work of the Cathedral Church of Christ. Frequent special meetings have been held to consider plans for advancing the physical structure, as well as to enlist the interest and co-operation of all the members of the Diocese. A brochure, containing the genesis of the Cathedral idea, its present status and the plans for advancing its work and usefulness has been sent to the Clergy and to several thousand members of the Diocese.

There is real need of revived life in the Cathedral League. This organization served to carry the idea of a Cathedral into the different Parishes at the beginning and brought a large number of people directly into contact with the Cathedral project. It was of material assistance as well. Shortly there will be started again this splendid work of the League and it is hoped that many members of every Parish will enroll in its ranks to carry on the work of the Cathedral.

The Service of Evening Prayer on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, offers an excellent opportunity for Parishes to make a pilgrimage to the Cathedral. It is planned to ask Rectors or Priests-in-charge of congregations to conduct this service on the various Sunday afternoons, bringing their choir and organist and as many of their people as can possibly come.

The Treasurer's Report has been duly audited by Certified Public Accountants and found correct. The same will be filed and found in the Report of the Journal.

JAMES M. NIBLO,
Assistant Registrar.

APPENDIX J

Report of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions for the Year 1934

Before commencing its report the Commission wishes to record its sense of loss in the death of the Rev. Gilbert E. Pember, in the middle of the year, and also its appreciation of his work, first, as Secretary, and then for many years as Chairman of the Commission. Under him the work was organized and its methods largely fixed. He always stood valiantly for the rights of the clergy in the matter of adequate salaries and pensions, but was also keenly alive to the responsibilities of the Commission as dispensing money which the parishes had to raise.

1. Organization and Work

The Commission, enlarged by three members elected to it by the Executive Council in accordance with the change in the Canon effected by the Convention of 1934, held its first meeting in September, and has been meeting monthly ever since, with the Bishop present at all but two meetings. The Rev. F. C. Hartshorne, a member of the Commission almost from the beginning, was elected Chairman, and the Rev. James M. Niblo, elected to the Commission by the Council, was chosen Secretary. The members elected by the Council have been most faithful in attendance and their presence has been very helpful, and co-operation between the Council and the Commission has been all that could be desired.

2. Income and Outgo

The chief problem of the months of July, August and September was that of securing funds with which to make the monthly payments to the parishes who were being helped to pay their Rectors adequate salaries, which payments averaged over $900 a month. The year had begun with an empty treasury and even a debt for some money borrowed, and many Accounting Wardens seemed to be under the impression that it did not greatly matter when the Assessment for the Sustentation Fund was paid so long as it was paid sometime, so that when the monthly checks had gone out the funds were usually exhausted. The Commission desires to thank those Wardens who, from time to time, responded to its appeals to send in money so that its monthly payments might not be delayed, and because of whose responses they never were. The clergy of the aided parishes have come to depend upon these monthly payments from the Sustentation Fund because they have learned they can count upon their coming to them on the date due, which is often more than can be said of payments from their own parishes. We ask Wardens to remember that, with a monthly outgo this year of $1,000, we need an equal income if we are to keep up our good record and not let the clergy down.

3. Augmenting Salaries

After the close of 1934, it was found that a considerable number of the clergy had received much less than the minimum salary during that year. The Commission felt that as it had a considerable balance of 1934, as much of that balance as was necessary to make up such 1934 deficiencies of salaries of right belonged to those whose salaries had been below the minimum. To bring those men almost up to the minimum required the expenditure, since the close of 1934, of $1,200 of 1934 money in our hands. The recipients had neither asked for nor expected these belated payments and were very appreciative. One of them to whom one hundred dollars had been sent wrote: "Many, many thanks! I will now go out and pay some bills. What a Godsend!"

The secretary of a vestry, whose indebtedness to their Rector was reduced by our additional appropriation, wrote: "Please convey to your Commission our profound gratitude for this unexpected gift, which we hope to show in our most earnest loyalty to Christ, the Church and the Diocese."

4. Method of Making Appropriations

The Commission desires to acquaint the Convention with the manner in which it arrived at its Budget of Appropriations for this year, and with the efforts it has made to develop giving within the parishes and to make the funds with which the parishes furnish it through the assessments for the Sustentation Fund accomplish a maximum of good.

Taking the words of the Canon for guidance, the Commission laid down for itself and for the vestries of the aided parishes the rule that the amount which the Commission could rightly appropriate to help any particular parish pay its Rector's salary must be measured by the extent, in dollars, to which the vestry could prove that the parish was incapable of paying the salary in full.

The Evidence Required

In order that it might be able to feel that each parish had made every effort to draw upon its own resources to the utmost, the Commission called upon all vestries seeking aid from it to arrange for an Every Member Canvass. It also asked for parish budgets, in order that it might scrutinize the expenditures for the purpose of making sure that there were not among them any items which ought to be omitted or reduced, in order to release more money for Rector's salary, and thus reduce the amount needed to be appropriated by the Commission for that purpose.

In this way, while disclaiming any desire to meddle in the internal affairs of the parishes or to dictate to vestries, attention has been called to desirable changes which many vestries have adopted, saving considerable sums to the Commission and putting their parish finances on a sounder basis. The Commission very much appreciates the fine spirit of those who have taken its unasked advice in good part.

In a few cases where it developed that the Rectors had been receiving free coal, etc., in addition to the full minimum salary, the money value of such things was computed and considered part of the salary received, and the appropriations adjusted accordingly. One man was "surprised and disgusted," but it is required in stewards that they be found faithful, and the Commission has not knowingly helped any Rector to receive more than the minimum, and has brought up to it several who were receiving less. We know, and have repeatedly pointed it out to the vestries of parishes seeking aid, that the money we dispense is hard for Rectors and vestries to raise.

5. Applications

To impress vestries with their duties in this connection, we have had them all sign printed application blanks, reading substantially as follows:

APPLICATION FOR ASSISTANCE FROM THE SUSTENTATION FUND

"The Vestry of St. Gregory's Parish, having had a canvass for the purpose of ascertaining how much can be expected from all sources for the year 1935, and having reduced as far as possible all other parochial expenditures, finds that the most that can be raised towards the salary of the Rector for the year is $1,500.

"The vestry, therefore, requests from the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions a grant of $50 monthly for the year 1935, or for as many months thereof as may be necessary to enable it to pay the Rector the required salary. The vestry understands that it will be expected to pay in full its assessment for the Sustentation Fund, and also its Pension Assessments on the portion of the Rector's salary that is paid by the parish, and undertakes to make those payments in addition to the payment of its part of the Rector's salary."

6. The 1935 Appropriations

The final result of our conferences with vestries was a budget for this year containing the same number of parishes as last year, two former ones having gone off the list and two new ones being added. But the two new ones required $400 more help than the ones removed had needed, and a number of parishes were less able to support their Rectors this year than they had been last year. Also, some men who had not been receiving the minimum salary were brought up to it. The net result was a budget calling for about $1,000 more than the budget of last year which, considering conditions, should not and doubtless will not be surprising. For these and other reasons, as will be explained later, it was not possible to reduce the assessment for this year.

7. Two Aided Parishes

On the 1935 budget there is one parish receiving $900, one $800, three $700, seven $600, and nine others receiving from $450 to $300 each. The parish receiving $900 is that of St. Stephen's, Norwood. Certain facts should be known in that connection. St. Stephen's was formerly a Mission, as many places in that region still are. Conditions were most unpromising, but when it became a parish in 1908 and called the present Rector, a new spirit developed. The property was put in shape, and a mortgage on the Rectory paid off. When the system of minimum salaries was put in force, the Chairman of this Commission asked the Rector whether the parish could pay the minimum, and the latter replied, "Yes, if we do not enlarge our buildings at our own expense," and the Chairman answered, "By all means build, and we will help you with salary." Thereupon the parish doubled the size of its church and parish house, and without a mortgage, and without any outside help, organizations raising over $6,000 in two years, and the necessary bank loan has been steadily reduced ever since. In 1928 it was $3,200, and now it is $1,550, in spite of the depression.

St. Stephen's, Norwood, has always paid its Canonical and Pension Assessments; which is more than can be said of some parishes which receive less than it from the Sustentation Fund in the budget of appropriations, but have received as much or more, all things considered.

St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, possibly became a parish prematurely, but it is not at all certain that the Diocese has not gained thereby. The Campaign Fund paid half the cost of a new parish house, but a mortgage of $15,000 remains, upon which the parish has paid and is struggling to continue to pay the yearly interest, which amounts to more than is received from the Sustentation Fund. Had this place remained a Mission it is extremely likely that the Executive Council would be paying the interest and perhaps paying part of the salary. This parish also has been faithful in paying its assessments, including those for pensions. It is the conviction of the Commission that reducing many of these places to Mission status would break down the spirit of self-help and prove very expensive to the Diocese.

The above facts are made known in justice to the parishes concerned, and because the Commission has come in for some uninformed criticism in regard to Norwood, whose appropriation has been at that high figure for quite a number of years. And so, also, in regard to Wissinoming. At the latter place the Rector and vestry in a fine spirit put into effect economies which we suggested, which will enable them to continue to pay their heavy interest charge, of which they had almost despaired being able to do. All appropriations are given careful consideration by the whole Commission and represent their combined judgment.

8. The 1936 Assessment

While we have every reason to believe that the necessary appropriations for 1936 will have to be as large, or perhaps, even larger than for this year, we are not suggesting any increase in the amount to be assessed for that year. We do not have as yet such a working balance as we should have, but we have some, and we do not anticipate having to make this year and next as large payment of pension assessments for parishes which fail to make them themselves as in the past. In 1931, over $3,000 was advanced to pay pension assessment arrears for the previous year, and in 1932, $2,500 was paid for arrears of 1931. In 1934, there was paid $1,593 for pension arrears of 1933, and $1,000 for pension arrears of 1934. So far this year we have paid less than $400 for pension arrears of 1934 and that is absolutely all we are going to pay on account of last year, because all Missionaries have had their pension assessments for 1934 paid in full, without any cost either to the Sustentation Fund or to the Department of Missions. All the Parochial Clergy are now also paid up for 1934, except two or three for which the Commission has no responsibility.

Even if, at the end of the year, we have to pay $1,000 of pension arrears, this, added to the less than $400 already spent, makes only $1,400 as against $2,593 spent for pension arrears in 1934. We believe that the educational and follow-up work which has been done this year will save the difference this year and next, and that we shall be able to do the work expected of us with an Assessment of the same amount for 1936 as for this year and last, $15,000. Of course, if in December we find it possible to assess less we should do so, but it is improbable.

The Assessment certainly would be less if we could be certain that the whole amount assessed would be paid. But we have to face the expectation that a considerable number of the weaker parishes may not pay anything at all, and also that some large parishes will not pay until late in the year or, perhaps, not until some time the next year. At this writing the amount unpaid on the 1934 Assessment is $1,847, and while we are hoping that it will be substantially reduced before the Convention, the uncertainty is one of the reasons why we must ask to be allowed to assess somewhat more than we expect to receive, if we are to accomplish the task set us.

9. Arrears of Previous Years

The Commission is asking to be relieved of responsibility for collecting any unpaid Sustentation Fund Assessments for the years previous to 1934. It has not been customary to report these by name to the Convention, but the Commission will furnish them at the Convention, if the Convention calls upon it to do so. The Commission believes that in the great majority of cases the amounts, which for years prior to 1934 are all under $50 for any one year, are due to real inability to pay, and should be forgotten.

The Commission is by no means so sure that that is true of some of the arrears for 1934, and desires to point out to those Rectors and vestries whose parishes have not yet paid in full, or even anything on the Sustentation Fund Assessments for 1934, that their failure to do so, if persisted in, will be in the nature of an unfairness to the other parishes which, in the end, have to make good these failures to pay, and that it is also not quite "playing the game," for the parishes and Rectors where the assessments are not paid nevertheless share in the protection which the Sustentation Fund throws around the pension benefits of all the clergy.

10. The Function of the Commission

The Commission believes that there are some misunderstandings in regard to its powers and duties which it would like to clear up. Some men say, and perhaps others think, that the Commission in its appropriations is "sustaining" a number of "half-dead parishes that ought to be allowed to die," or that should be "compelled" to unite with others, etc., etc., and that instead of sustaining them, the Commission should close some and combine others. No one can possibly find in the Canonical provisions in regard to the Commission the slightest hint that it was intended that it should exercise any such high powers.

The Commission was set up to do just one thing, i. e., to make appropriations to augment to the minima established by the Convention, the salaries of Rectors who would otherwise receive less, and, growing out of that, certain functions in connection with pensions. Nothing more. It should be remembered that if a parish is to be compelled to do or not to do anything it can only be accomplished by in some way coercing the vestry, and the Commission has no power whatever over vestries, other than such as may come from exercising moral suasion, and the sole weapon of the Commission, if such it may be called, is the power to reduce or withhold an appropriation for the Rector's salary, and that is one which would smite only the Rector, who might not be in the least to blame for conditions and powerless to change them.

How far the framers of the Canon and the Convention that adopted it were from intending to encourage or even permit the Commission to act arbitrarily towards Rectors may be seen in two provisions in the Canon, in one of which it is provided that if the Commission withholds an appropriation to augment a Rector's salary without the consent of the parties concerned, the Commission must report it to the Convention where, it is to be supposed, the Rector and vestry may appeal from the action of the Commission. In the other provision in the Canon the lay members of the Commission are directed to confer with vestries and the Advisory Committees of Missions with a view to stimulating salary payments. The Commission was set up to help Rectors in that particular matter in which they are most helpless, the raising of their own salaries. The idea that the Commission could properly use its power over the salaries of Rectors for the purpose of bringing pressure to bear upon the parish involves a complete misconception of the purpose of the Convention in setting up the Commission.

11. Recognition of Defects

Nevertheless, the Commission realizes as keenly as any, that the division of the work of the Church in the Diocese between all too many separate and wholly independent units called parishes, the Rectors of which work practically without any supervision or control from without, and many other features of our organization and methods in the Diocese are serious weaknesses which are crying aloud for study and, if possible, remedy. But the work of remedying them is not that of the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions.

It might perhaps be appropriate for the Commission to study these problems and suggest remedies. But, immersed as it has been during the past year in the pressing necessity of perfecting its methods and securing the payment of assessments and pensions, it has not been able to give these questions such study as would enable it to offer at this time more than one suggestion which its experience this past year makes it believe should be adopted.

12. A Constructive Suggestion

So long as there is a Rector in a parish which is able to raise as much as $1,300 towards his salary, the Commission feels that, under the Canon, it has no choice but to make whatever appropriation may be necessary to bring his salary up to the minimum, even though it may feel that some other arrangement for providing services and pastoral care at that point would be better. In all but a very few cases, even if the Commission refused to give any aid, the Rector probaby would not leave, because he could not, and would just stay on, and he and his suffer. We cannot solve any problems by the brutal and futile method of half-starving Rectors and their families.

But where a parish, the wisdom of whose continued independent existence may well be open to question, becomes vacant through the death or removal of its Rector, if the Commission were authorized, at its discretion, to notify the parish authorities that no help will be given them from the Sustentation Fund if they elect a new Rector, and to notify anyone whom they may elect that the Commission will not feel any responsibility for his salary if he accepts, it might be possible to accomplish certain desirable results without any undeserved hardship on a Rector. We have had and still have a case of this nature before us, and would like to be authorized to deal with it in this way. We are therefore asking the passage of a resolution giving us, with the approval of the Bishop, such authority.

13. Proposed Changes in Standing Resolutions

The Commission is also asking for two other changes in the existing Standing Resolutions governing salaries. One, adopted several years ago, when it was believed it might be possible to raise the minimum to $2,400, provides that a clergyman may be raised to that sum if he has been eight years in Priest's Orders and is willing to do additional work outside his parish at the call of the Bishop. Nothing has ever been accomplished under this Resolution, and as it only gives rise to false hopes it should be repealed. Under the Resolution adopted last year that where more than $500 aid is given any parish the Rector and vestry must agree that the Bishop can call upon the Rector for some work outside the parish, twelve Rectors and vestries have given such consent, but as yet no call has been made upon any Rector for such service, which is an indication of the extreme difficulty of arranging combinations which seem so easy on paper.

The Commission is also asking for modification of the Resolution which provides that if a parish cannot raise as much as $1,200 towards the salary of its Rector the Commission must not make any appropriation, but must advise the parish to make application to the Bishop to be administered as a Mission. Under existing conditions, with the Department of Missions quite incapable of furnishing salaries for any more men than it is now supporting, the Commission has deemed it impossible to comply with this Resolution, and asks that it be made discretionary with the Commission, rather than obligatory. We are not appropriating more than $900 to any parish, and only that much to one; but there are parishes which, under the Resolution as it stands, should be told to apply for Mission status, but such action would at this time throw an intolerable burden upon the Department of Missions, and the Commission, which is working in harmony with the Department, does not wish this.

14. Pensions

There have not been any changes in the benefits and regulations of the Church Pension Fund during the year, and the Trustees have recently voted to continue (probably for another year at least) the increased minimum age allowance for clergymen—$1,000 a year, instead of $600, the widow's pension of $400, instead of $300, and the $1,000 gratuity to the widows of clergy dying in active service. Since our last report four widows have received $1,000 each upon the deaths of their husbands, and five have been granted annual pensions of $400 each. Pensions during minority have been granted for three children of deceased clergy. Four clergymen have been granted retiring allowances, and four total and permanent disability pensions, a large number for one year. The Church Pension Fund is now making pension payments to persons in this Diocese as follows: For 25 retired clergymen, $25,605, annually; for five disabled clergy under 68, $3,000; for 47 widows of clergymen, $18,132; for 16 minor children of deceased clergymen, $2,163. Altogether there is coming to persons in this Diocese through the Pension Fund and the funds it has absorbed, some $54,000 annually, almost as much as the total annual pension assessments paid in the Diocese to the Fund.

Surprise is sometimes expressed that the widow's annual pension should not be larger. Eventually it will be just one-half of her husband's retiring allowance if he dies after reaching 68. In the meantime it is worth noting that in the 18 years of the Fund's existence there have come to be 47 widows in this Diocese alone, drawing $400 each, and when it is realized that a number of them may continue to draw that amount for more than thirty years yet, the reason for the modest amount granted them will be apparent.

15. "Protecting the Diocese"

No clergyman whose own account with the Pension Fund is in good standing can possibly suffer any loss of the guaranteed benefits of the pension system because of anything any other parish than his own has or has not done during the year. But the $1,000 gratuity payable to the widow of a clergyman dying in active service was never among the original promises, and is payable only as long as the Fund has sufficient surplus income in any year to warrant it. Therefore, the Fund authorities have all along announced that it would not be paid in any Diocese if any parish therein had failed to pay at least one-half its assessments for the previous year, unless that default was in some way made up. Among the duties of the Commission is to see to it, by necessary appropriations from the Sustentation Fund, that if there are any such defaults they are made good, so that there shall not be any loss of the $1,000 gratuities.

This duty the Commission performed during the past year, as always heretofore, and every effort was made to prevent any possibility of the Commission being imposed upon by being compelled to pay pension assessments which others should have paid; and the Commission believes that, with the possible exception of one parish, and there only for small amount, no improper advantage was taken of it, and it hopes and believes that that case will not be repeated this year. Wardens and Rectors should make every effort to have at least one-half of the year's pension assessments paid up not later than early in December. One of the Commission's worst anxieties has always been the uncertainty as to how much might have to be advanced the last day of December, and whether it would have the funds for the purpose.

16. Payment of Arrears for 1933

During the year the Commission came rather suddenly to the realization that, under the rules of the Church Pension Fund, some eleven clergymen of the Diocese were in imminent danger of suffering serious loss of pension benefits for themselves or their families. These men were in arrears because of unpaid assessments for the year 1933. Under the rules of the Fund, after March 31st, if anything happened to those men those arrears of the previous years could not be paid in, and pension benefits would be drastically reduced. Those arrears were not really a responsibility of the Commission because they did not affect in any way the pension rights of any but those directly concerned. But as neither the clergy affected, nor those responsible for the payment of the assessments, had been made aware of the danger, and as something had to be done at once to prevent the possibility of loss, the Commission felt that it should immediately pay those arrears, amounting to $623, and did so. Such a situation cannot occur this year for everyone has been fully apprised of the danger of allowing any of last year's arrears to remain after March 31st, and none do, except some trifling amounts which are of no interest except to the persons concerned.

17. What Is the Responsibility of the Commission for Pension Arrears?

It may be thought that its responsibility should be for such arrears only as have to be paid to "protect" the Diocese. But that would be a narrow view, and the Commission has not so interpreted the Canon. It has taken the position that when the Convention declared that Rectors should receive such and such salaries it meant with pension assessments paid by others than themselves. The whole theory of the Church Pension System is that the laity, not the clergy, should pay the cost of pensions for the clergy. If the Diocese should guarantee Rectors a minimum salary and then, when their vestries did not pay the assessments they should, the Diocese should leave the Rectors to choose between allowing their pension rights to become seriously impaired through such non-payment, or paying the assessments themselves out of their salaries, it would make the guaranteed minimum something of a farce.

The Commission has therefore taken the position it is its business to see to it that Rectors entitled to it, receive $2,100 and pension assessments fully paid, in part by the Commission on the amount of its appropriation, and in part by the parish on the part of the salary paid by it; and that if the Commission could not get the parish to pay its part, the Commission would have to pay it, rather than have the Rector suffer loss of pension rights or loss of salary. We would have had to pay for the first half-year in any such case to "protect" the Diocese, and we have also felt obligated to pay, and have paid for the whole year in some cases. But in the applications which the vestries of parishes desiring aid have signed this year they have pledged themselves to pay in full their pension assessments, and the Commission intends to hold them to their pledge. But we must in any case protect the pension interests of the Rectors. And even where we have no responsibility, as in connection with unpaid pension assessments in a parish which has paid for at least one-half of the year and is not an aided parish we sometimes go out of our way to urge them to protect their Rectors.

18. When the Commission Will Protest

But when a Rector is actually receiving considerably more than the minimum salary, say $2,300, or more, and his pension assessments are not paid in full, or not paid for at least half of the year, the Commission takes the position that it ought not to pay any part of such arrears; for even if the Rector be wrongfully compelled to pay the assessments in whole or in part himself, by the failure of his vestry to pay them, he would still be receiving at least the minimum salary. And if, under such circumstances, the assessments for at least half of the year are not paid, and the Commission is compelled to pay them in order to "protect" the Diocese, it will only do so under protest, and will report any such case by name to the Convention, because it will be considered an imposition upon the other parishes.

19. Payment of Assessments and Interest Thereon

When the Church Pension Fund was started bills for the assessments were sent out from some Diocesan office and payments made to it, and by it remitted periodically to New York. This was the case in this Diocese until this year. This involved a very considerable expense in our Executive Office, partly offset for a while by interest on deposits, because we remitted only four times a year. But when such interest was outlawed the Chairman of the Commission felt that it was not proper that the cost of collecting pension assessments should fall upon the Executive Office and so come out of the offerings of the people.

At the same time it developed that while everywhere else the Church Pension Fund was charging interest on all assessments sixty days overdue, in Pennsylvania it never had collected a cent of interest, possibly due to some arrangement between Dr. Pember and the late Mr. Sayre, of which no record can be found. The right of the Fund to charge interest cannot be questioned, and it was arranged that, beginning with this year, the New York office would relieve us of all expense in connection with billing for and collecting pensions and we, in turn, would make no objection to interest being charged. As an appropriation towards the expenses of the Executive Office is now made out of the Sustentation Fund, the operations of the Commission and the collecting of the Sustentation Fund Assessments do not impose one cent of cost upon any other fund.

Two other changes in administration during the year have been the inauguration of monthly bills for pension assessments, and the sending out of bills for Sustentation Fund Assessments at the beginning of the first quarter instead of at the end of it, a practice which is a relic of the old Convention year running from May 1st to April 30th. Both changes have already abundantly justified themselves.

20. What Do the Aided Parishes Amount To?

It will probably be a surprise to most members of the Convention to learn that the number of Communicants in the aided parishes as a whole is 5,540, and the number of Sunday School scholars over 2,500. This is a larger group than in some whole Dioceses. In the Diocese of Delaware, for example, there are 5,074 Communicants and 2,258 Sunday School scholars. The sheep and the lambs in our 21 aided parishes are ministered by 21 priests at a cost to the Diocese of less than $14,000 yearly. The Department of Missions conducts a work in which some 9,000 Communicants are ministered to at a cost to the Diocese of some $62,000 a year in 1933.

The above comparison must not be taken as in any way implying any criticism or lack of appreciation of the splendid work of the Department of Missions, of the Missionaries, and especially of the Deans, whose sacrifices in time, energy and money in the performance of their duties in addition to the carrying on of their own work are not sufficiently understood or appreciated. But the comparison is made for the purpose of emphasizing the essentially different character of the two kinds of work which the Church in this Diocese is carrying on in these two ways.

In the Missions, especially in the newer ones, there is the necessity of building from the ground up, not only in the matter of equipment, which is a large part of the expense of conducting the Missionary work, but in the matter of laying spiritual foundations, inducing people to give to the Church, the creating of habits of Church work and Church attendance, and the formation of lasting loyalties. In the aided parishes all these foundations have mostly been laid years ago, and the work has a momentum of its own which it does not usually gain in Missions for quite some time. The task of the Diocese, therefore, is essentially different in the two fields. In the Missions it is necessary to plant as well as water, whereas in the aided parishes only a little watering is necessary!

Further Figures On Aided Parishes

While the Diocese was spending less than $14,000 a year on the aided parishes by helping them support their Rectors, those parishes themselves were raising some $75,000 a year from their own people, and were returning to the Diocese substantial sums in payment of the Canonical Assessments, from two of which Missions are exempt, and were contributing substantial amounts on their expectations. In 1933 they reported possessing property valued at $1,456,500. Such are not the signs of death but of life, and of life which is enabled to function as it should by means of the small amount of help received from the contributions of other parishes to the Sustentation Fund.

What Are You Having a Part In?

From the above description, the clergy and people of the parishes from whom the money of the Sustentation Fund largely comes, should look upon their contributions as helping to carry on a work larger than that of the Dioceses of Delaware, Duluth, Easton, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Spokane, Springfield, Sacramento, Lexington, and a number of others. The Diocese of Pennsylvania has reason for satisfaction in the knowledge that the plan started nearly fifty years ago to provide adequate salaries for the clergy has been kept continuously in operation, and so, in these troublous times, has protected our clergy from the sad fate which has overtaken so many of their brethren in other parts of the country.

RESOLUTIONS

1. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be authorized to assess not more than $15,000 for the Sustentation Fund for the year 1936.

2. RESOLVED, That the Commission on Clerical Salaries and Pensions be relieved of responsibility for cellecting Sustentation Fund arrears for any year prior to 1934.

3. RESOLVED, That Standing Resolution E, having to do with Clerical Salaries, be repealed.

4. RESOLVED, That the Standing Resolution adopted in 1934, and reading as follows:

"RESOLVED, That if a parish does not contribute at least $1,300 annually towards its Rector's salary the Commission may, and if it does not contribute at least $1,200 the Commission shall, etc.," be changed to read:

"RESOLVED, That if a parish does not contribute at least $1,300 towards its Rector's salary, the Commission may withdraw or decline to make any appropriation to augment the Rector's salary, and may recommend to the Bishop, the Rector and vestry that the parish make application to come under the Missionary Administration as provided in Canon VIII, Sec. V." In such a case the Commission may make an appropriation towards the salary of the Rector or Missionary following the assumption of Missionary status."

5. RESOLVED, That a new Standing Resolution be adopted reading as follows:

"RESOLVED, That where a parish becomes vacant through the death or resignation or removal of its Rector the Commission may, for sufficient cause and with the approval of the Bishop, notify the vestry thereof that no appropriation will be made by the Commission to enable the vestry to elect and support a Rector, but that if they will waive, for a limited period, the right to elect a Rector, and will consent to the Bishop appointing a Priest-in-Charge, the Commission will help in paying his salary."

APPENDIX K

Report of the Registrar of the Diocese of Pennsylvania

May 7, 1935

Since the last Convention, the work of making photostat copies of all the parish registers in the Church House has been completed, with the exception of those of the Church of the Transfiguration, West Philadelphia.

This work has been done by the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, whose fine collection of books and manuscripts is located in the building of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, Thirteenth and Locust Streets. We owe the Genealogical Society our thanks for copying these valuable old books.

Moreover, all these registers have been accurately indexed by the Society, except those of the parishes of the Evangelists, the Advent, the Messiah, and two or three of the later books of old St. Paul's. Indexes of these books will be available as soon as the work can be done. The task of the searcher is thus made very much easier.

For the information of those who are interested in these records, I herewith submit a list of the parishes whose registers, with indexes, may be seen in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania:

Old Christ Church.
St. Peter's.
St. Paul's.
Gloria Dei.
St. James's.
St. Andrew's.
St. John's, Northern Liberties.

St. Stephen's.
Trinity, Southwark
Trinity, Oxford.
St. Mary's, West Philadelphia.

The Bill now in Congress providing for a National Pension system has brought me letters from persons in all parts of the country who were desirous of proving their ages from the Church records. If this Bill should become a law, our parish registers will become increasingly valuable as sources of information to pension claimants.

I regret that, owing to ill health, I cannot continue to perform the duties of the registrar and I have asked the Bishop to accept my resignation at this Convention.

In this final Report, I wish to acknowledge with appreciation the valuable assistance which the Rev. Richard J. Morris has given me in my work during my summer vacations and at other times when I have been absent from the Church House.

Report of the Committee on Financial Safeguards

Introductory

This Committee was appointed by Bishop Taitt pursuant to the following Resolution adopted by the Diocesan Convention of 1934:

"WHEREAS sound financial practice requires that securities and current funds be safeguarded and investments continuously supervised:

"AND WHEREAS some non-Parochial Institutions, Societies, Committees and other organizations operating in the Diocese of Pennsylvania under the auspices of this Church, at present lack adequate protection for their securities and funds, and supervision of their investments:

"BE IT RESOLVED, That the Bishop is hereby requested to appoint a Special Committee to bring about such protection and supervision by the voluntary action of the organizations at present concerned; to confer with the Committee on Canons on the desirability and practicability of regulating the matter by Canon; and to submit to the Convention of 1935 a written report of its actions and recommendations."

At the time this Resolution was adopted a committee of the Department of Finance of the Executive Council, acting under a Resolution adopted by the Council November 10, 1933, on motion of the Rev. George Herbert Toop, D.D., was conducting an inquiry and had accumulated considerable material bearing on the financial practices of non-parochial organizations in the Diocese. This material was placed at the disposal of your Committee and enabled it to commence its work with a flying start. For the sake of brevity we will in this Report treat as our own the work previously accomplished by the Committee of the Department of Finance.

The Committee met soon after its appointment and elected the convener chairman.

Field of Activity

The field of the Committee's activity has been:

(a) Inquiry as to current financial practices.
(b) Specific recommendations to various organizations.
(c) Consideration of the power of the Diocese to regulate the subject by Canon.
(d) Consideration of the most effective mode of regulation.

We will take up these topics in order.

(a) INQUIRY AS TO CURRENT FINANCIAL PRACTICES

We listed, and then wrote to, the treasurers of all organizations conducting within this Diocese any work under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, so far as we were able to ascertain them. Appendix "A" gives a list of these organizations. They fall into the following roughly defined groups:

(1) Committees, Commissions, Boards, Funds, Trusts, etc., established pursuant to a Diocesan Canon, or otherwise dependent upon Convention.
(2) Diocesan Missions for Worship (as distinguished from Missions to the blind, deaf, prisoners, etc.)
(3) Woman's Auxiliary Committees.
(4) Other non-parochial organizations: corporations, associations, boards, funds, societies or committees, some of them of long standing, established under the secular law and conducting, under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, benevolent or administrative activities of various kinds.

From practically all of the organizations listed we have replies which indicate their current practice as to Safeguarding current funds.

Safeguarding securities.
Supervision of investments.
Auditing.

In general, the larger organizations have established and maintain what appear to be careful financial practices. But not a few organizations with considerable sums in current funds and securities fail to provide:

Safe custody for securities (keeping them in the treasurer's office, or in a safe-deposit box to which the treasurer alone has access).
Safeguarding current funds (treasurer or other drawing officers not bonded, or insufficiently bonded).
Supervision of investments (no periodical review of mortgage, bond, or stock holdings to determine soundness).
Audits (none made, or made only at irregular intervals, or by unqualified persons or covering too limited a field).

(b) SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS TO VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

Your Committee wrote certain organizations suggesting improvements in their financial practices. We think it would not be helpful to list these organizations here. In some cases only minor changes were suggested.

(c) THE POWER OF THE DIOCESE

Over the organizations established pursuant to Canon, or otherwise dependent upon Convention, and over Diocesan Missions (classes 1 and 2 above) the Convention or the Bishop has sufficient control.

Authority is lacking over the Woman's Auxiliary Committees (class 3 above) but these are so close to the Diocese and so eager to co-operate with and aid it that no practical difficulty arises.

It is with regard to organizations established under the secular law (class 4 above) that Diocesan power is both lacking and needed. We do not mean to imply that any of the organizations of this class now in existence has refused to co-operate with our inquiry. We have had splendid co-operation. But it is a fact that any three or four people can form under the secular law a corporation or association for some benevolent or other enterprise; hold themselves out as operating under the auspices of the Episcopal Church; collect money contributions from our communicants, and absolutely reject all Diocesan control and supervision. There have been instances of such rejection in the past. The evil is not confined to bad financial practices. The organization may be superfluous; devoted to an outworn theory; or inexpertly managed in ways other than financial. Its whole existence and conduct may be a reproach to the Church it purports to serve. The Church gets the blame for the defects of such organizations. Popular comment is "Well, what can you expect of a church outfit?

We submit that any organization which accepts gifts to be applied to a charitable purpose owes to the givers the duty to administer those gifts effectively and prudently, as regards both social policy and finance. Who is to see that this duty is performed? The State has the power to do so but thus far, at least in our Commonwealth, has exercised it only to a limited degree, although lately there have been definite signs of the beginning of more supervision. But whatever the State may do or may omit to do, has not the Church a duty to supervise the conduct of organizations which say that they follow the doctrine and worship of the Church and obtain contributions from communicants of the Church upon that assertion?

We think that the answer is clear. But the Diocese, which of course within its own territory must speak for the Church, at present lacks the power to enforce any regulations which it might adopt. The lacking power, however, may easily be gained by the simple method of requiring by Canon that the Boards or Managers of the organizations concerned adopt resolutions acknowledging the right of the Diocese to regulate them within a specified field, here that of financial safeguards. The consideration for such resolutions, if any be necessary, is the willingness of the Diocese to recognize these organizations as worthy of continuing to receive the gifts of its communicants.

This simple expedient will confer upon the Diocese the power which it now lacks. The nature and scope of the power to be exercised can then be defined in other canonical provisions so drawn as to effect the desired results with a minimum of vexatious interference.

(d) THE MOST EFFECTIVE MODE OF REGULATION

If power to regulate be thus established by a canonical requirement of submission to regulation, implemented by formal declaration of such submission by the organizations concerned, the remaining question is as to the most effective and least vexatious mode of regulation.

Canons are not self-enforcing. Nor is it possible to provide by Canon for all the situations which may arise. Administration is a Siamese twin of legislation. The general purposes to be attained should be stated in a Canon and the attainment of them entrusted to a small number of persons chosen as provided in the same Canon. We think that these persons should be members of some existing Diocesan administrative body. The multiplication of permanent special committees is a source of confusion. In seeking an administrative body in which to lodge the limited powers which we propose to provide for by Canon we have chosen the Department of Finance of the Executive Council. We will not list the reasons for this selection because they seem sufficiently obvious. Our supposition is that under a Canon empowering the Executive Council, through its Department of Finance, to require the adoption and maintenance of proper financial safeguards by all organizations (except parishes and other church congregations) now operating or which may in future operate under the auspices of this Church within this Diocese, the Department of Finance would require, in most cases, the annual certificate of a public accountant to the existence of the precautions which after proper deliberation and consultation the Department might decide upon. Special provision could be made for small organizations and for special cases.

Flexibility in such matters is essential, and can be had under the arrangement which we propose.

For clarity may we restate our proposals thus far: a canonical requirement of submission to a limited Diocesan regulation of finance; submission evidenced by Resolution of the governing body; regulation by the Diocesan Department of Finance under a Canon giving it the necessary authority; all this to apply only to organizations other than parishes and missions. The Committee was not empowered to deal with parishes, and it has also excepted missions for a reason to be mentioned presently.

We have now concluded our discussion of the four topics mentioned at the outset of this report, viz.,

(a) Inquiry as to current financial practices.
(b) Specific recommendations to various organizations.
(c) Consideration of the power of the Diocese to regulate the subject by Canon.
(d) Consideration of the most effective mode of regulation.

But before we proceed to our specific recommendations there are one or two other matters to consider.

The first is that it has seemed best not to include the Diocesan Missions for worship in the proposed plan. These are under the Bishop and the Department of Missions, who are able to prescribe for them any proper financial regulations and presumably will adopt, to the extent that they may be applicable to such missions, the regulations proposed for other organizations by the Department of Finance of the Executive Council.

The next matter to be mentioned is the existing canonical legislation bearing on financial safeguards. We summarize it below:

General Convention Canon 51, Section II:

Custodians of trust and permanent funds for Church purposes to deposit them in a bank, or with a corporation of the Diocese, and to report annually to Diocesan Convention or to Convocation a detailed statement of each fund.

Same Canon, Section III:

All accounts to be audited annually by a C. P. A., except where one is not available or the income is less than $3,000.

Diocesan Canon XVI, Section II:

The same as General Convention Canon 53, IV, as to audits, supra.

Diocesan Canon XVIII, Section I:

No organization not listed as Diocesan shall be recognized as having the endorsement of the Diocese. To be so listed an organization must:

Report annually to Convention;
Submit to the Executive Council a full account of receipts and disbursements;
Make no special public appeals for support without the consent of the Council;
Furnish to the Treasurer of the Diocese the names and parishes of communicant contributors;
Admit a representative of the Executive Council to its Board;
Have a majority of communicants on its Board;
And recognize the spiritual authority of the Bishop.

We see no present reason to repeal the Diocesan legislation above summarized, and the National Church legislation is of course beyond our control. It may well be, of course, that after a period of experimentation with the working of the additional legislation we now propose Convention may wish to amend or abrogate some of its older financial legislation.

Section I of Canon XVIII (supra) is so related to the plan we propose, that any committee making and enforcing financial regulations should be empowered to enforce this section also. We have therefore so provided.

The views of the Committee, now, we hope, sufficiently before you, can be made effective by:

(1) Adding a brief clause to Section IV of Canon VI (On the Duties of the Executive Council) so as to mention there the new duties cast upon the Finance Department of the Council;

(2) Adding two new Sections III and IV, to existing Canon XVI (Of Business Methods in Church Affairs), one of these new sections to cover the requirements of submission to regulation and the other to provide for regulation;

(3) Changing one word in Section II (on audits) of this same Canon XVI. This one word is "organizations," and we recommend that it be changed to "congregations." The section, which now governs "All Parishes and Church Organizations," will then govern "All Parishes and Church Congregations" but not any of the organizations with which we are dealing in this report. We wish to except the organizations with which this Report is concerned from the operation of this section, because, although we are proposing arrangements which will include a requirement of audits, we do not wish to have our regulatory body hampered by set provisions.

We now submit these changes in form suitable for enactment:

A. Amend Section IV of Canon VI by adding at the end thereof a new clause as follows:

The Council shall through its Department of Finance prescribe and enforce the financial safeguards provided for by Sections III and IV of Canon XVI and shall also enforce the provisions of Section I of Canon XVIII.

B. Amend Section II of Canon XVI by substituting the word "congregations" for the word "organizations."

C. Add two new Sections III and IV, to Canon XVI, as follows:

Section III.

1. All organizations except parishes and other church congregations,
2. Whether corporations, associations, trusts, or of whatever category under the secular law;
3. Which under the secular law have their existence or conduct their operations within the territorial limits of the Diocese of Pennsylvania as now or hereafter delimited;
4. And which by any means or in any manner hold themselves out, or reasonably appear so to do, as founded or maintained or operated, for benevolent, administrative, or other purposes, under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America or in the Diocese of Pennsylvania;
5. Shall if they desire to continue under these auspices, and to be recognized by this Diocese as meeting its requirements;
6. Make formal declaration of their adherence to the doctrine and worship of this Church in the United States and in this Diocese, and of their submission to its discipline and Canons;
7. And shall conform to such requirements for the safekeeping of securities, the protection of current funds, the supervision of investments, the auditing of accounts, and other desirable financial safeguards and practices, as may from time to time be imposed by the Canons of this Church in the United States or in this Diocese.

Section IV.

As soon as practicable following the adoption of Sections III and IV of this Canon the Executive Council of the Diocese, acting through its Department of Finance, shall bring the requirements of Section III to the attention of all organizations described therein and invite them to adopt a Resolution to meet the requirements of paragraph 6 of Secion III and to furnish the Department with a duly certified copy thereof.

In the case of each organization which already conforms or shall have conformed to the requirements of Section III, the Department of Finance shall prescribe regulations for the safekeeping of securities, the protection of current funds, the supervision of investments; the auditing of accounts, and other desirable financial safeguards and practices, and it shall be the duty of each such organization, when notified of these regulations, to put them into effect and to submit from time to time, when requested by the Finance Department, such evidence that the regulations are being observed as the Department may indicate.

The Executive Council shall report annually to Convention the action of the Department and the names of all organizations which have met the requirements of this Canon and of Section I of Canon XVIII, and of the regulations prescribed thereunder, and a list of such organizations shall be pulblished annually in the Journal of Convention and in the Church News of the Diocese.

In conclusion, the Committee desires to express its indebtedness to the Chancellor, to Mr. Louis B. Runk, and to the Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne, for general aid, and to Messrs. John Lewis Evans and William White, for particular criticisms.

Respectfully submitted,

S. F. HOUSTON, HENRY R. ROBINS,
LEWIS G. MORRIS, HOWARD R. WEIR,
SPENCER ERVIN, Chairman.

APPENDIX N

Amendments to the Constitution Proposed at the General Convention of 1934, and to Be Finally Acted Upon at the Convention of 1937

1. Amend Article I., Section 3, of the Constitution by striking out from the sixth line thereof the word "the," and in the seventh line thereof the words "entitled to vote in the House of Bishops"; and by inserting after the word "Bishops" the words "excluding retired Bishops not present"; so that said sentence shall read as follows:

"The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops of this Church to be the Presiding Bishop of the Church by a vote of a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, except that whenever two-thirds of the House of Bishops are present a majority vote shall suffice, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies."

2. Amend Article II., Section 4, so that the first sentence thereof shall read as follows:

"It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and with seat and vote in the House of Bishops, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution."

3. Amend Article VI., Section 2, so that the second paragraph thereof shall read as follows:

"Any territorial jurisdiction or any part of the same, which may have been accepted from a Diocese of the General Convention under the foregoing provision, may be retroceded to the said Diocese by such joint action of all the several parties as is herein required for its cession, save that in the case of retrocession of territory the consent of parishes within the territory retroceded shall not be necessary; provided that such action of the General Convention, whether of cession or retrocession, shall be by a vote of two-thirds of all the Bishops present and voting and by a vote of two-thirds of the House of Deputies voting by orders."

4. Amend Article X. so that the second sentence thereof shall read as follows:

"No alteration thereof or addition thereto shall be made unless the same shall be first proposed in one triennial meeting of the General Convention and by a resolve thereof be sent within six months to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese and of the Convocation of every Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America, to be made known to the Diocesan Convention or Missionary District Convocation at its next meeting, and be adopted by the General Convention at its next succeeding triennial meeting by a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies and all the Missionary Districts within the boundaries of the United States, voting by orders, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical order and one vote in the Lay order, and each Missionary District having a one-fourth vote in the Clerical order and a one-fourth vote in the Lay order."

5. Amend Article XI. to read as follows:

"No alteration or amendment of this Constitution shall be made unless the same shall be first proposed at one triennial meeting of the General Convention and by a resolve thereof be sent to the Secretary of the Convention of every Diocese, to be made known to the Diocesan Convention at its next meeting, and be adopted by the General Convention at its next succeeding triennial meeting by a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, of the whole number of Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies voting by orders."

APPENDIX O

Report of The Church Foundation to the Convention

At the Annual Meeting of the Members, held May 9th, 1934, the following gentlemen were elected to the Board to serve for the ensuing three years:

Rev. Franklin Joiner, D.D.	Mr. R. A. Morgan
Rev. L. C. Washburn, S.T.D.	Mr. H. R. Robins
	Mr. E. B. McCarthy

At a meeting of the Board, held May 9th, 1934, it was resolved to apply to the Standing Committee for permission to take down St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, Broad and South Streets, and the Parish House adjoining it, and to devote the land to secular uses, provided certain conditions were complied with.

At a meeting held October 26th, 1934, permission was granted for erection of an addition to the Parish House of St. Augustine's Mission after the Executive Council had passed on the matter.

At a meeting held January 9th, 1935, a plan was considered for aiding those Trusts requiring cash for the protection of their real estate assets, and was referred to the Chancellor of the Diocese.

At an adjourned meeting held February 18th, 1935, the Board adopted a plan presented by the Committee on Investments and approved by the Chancellor and the Bishop, whereby the entire situation regarding overdrafts and foreclosures was covered.

At this same meeting, the By-Laws were amended to provide for the election of a Corresponding Secretary who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him from time to time by the Board of Directors, which shall not be in conflict with any of the duties of the present officers.

On motion, the Rev. Francis C. Hartshorne was elected to the office.

At a meeting held April 10th, 1935, approved in principle the granting of a request to reconvey the title to St. John's Church, Northern Liberties, but only on certain conditions determined by the Committee on Investments with the advice and consent of the Bishop.

The Committee on Trusts reported the receipt of Trust Pool Mortgage Participation Certificate in the sum of $200, as Substituted Trustee of Mary E. Bullock Burial Fund.

The Chancellor presented an Amendment to Article II of the Charter of The Church Foundation to be voted upon at the next meeting.

The appended analysis of investments of The Church Foundation, December 31, 1934, was presented at the meeting held April 10, 1935:

Uninvested cash	$23,692.59
Bonds	549,228.29
Stocks	25,211.81
Mortgages	391,805.58
Omnibus Mortgages	116,810.00
Real Estate Investments	298,895.26
Real Estate (Church Properties)	357,977.89
Omnibus Real Estate	57,643.75
Miscellaneous	10,500.76
	$1,831,765.93
Less Liabilities—Note Payable and Reserve for Mtge. Interest	101,079.41
		$1,730,686.52

Respectfully submitted,

Edmund B. McCarthy.

APPENDIX P

Report of the Commission on Evangelism

The work of the Commission has been limited by the fact that no appropriation whatever has been made for it in the Diocesan Budget. On March 2nd, 1935, a Pre-Lenten Devotional Meeting was held in the Church of The Holy Trinity, led by Canon Earp, at which the total attendance was about 100 men. A preaching mission was held at the Church of The Holy Trinity on Thursday evenings during Lent, at which the attendance was very gratifying. The Commission wishes to acknowledge its indebtedness to the Rector and Vestry of the Church of The Holy Trinity, and to the choirmaster, Mr. Kinder, for the courtesy and generosity which made these meetings possible. The Commission has also been able to assist one Parish in securing a leader for a Parish Mission. It is hoped that the activities of the Commission may be enlarged and continued during the coming year.

J. K. Shryock,
Chairman.
